Ellis to Locate Truck Terminal Here; Boost to City Economy

Contract Means $300,000 to $350,000 Payroll

Action is Result of 2-Month Negotiations By the Jaycees

Most pleasant economic news in years for Harrisburg was announced today by the Harrisburg Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The Jaycees revealed that contracts had been signed whereby the Ellis Trucking Co. will place its terminal for its Indianapolis-to-Memphis run in Harrisburg. This means that Ellis will be putting an annual payroll estimated at from $300,000 to $350,000 into the Harrisburg area. Most of 76 employees on the run will move into the area with the terminal expected to get in operation here in August.

The terminal will be built on Route 45 across the highway from the Harrisburg Motor Hotel and will be constructed by the Midland Construction Co., owned by J. Cecil Sullivan and F. M. "Pat" Sullivan, who yesterday signed the contracts for the terminal here with Claude C. Caylor, general manager of the Ellis Trucking Co., Inc.

The signing of the contract came after six weeks to two months of negotiating between the Jaycees and Ellis representatives. When it was learned that the Ellis company planned to abandon its present terminal at Marion, Ky., and move it into southern Illinois, the Harrisburg Junior Chamber of Commerce got busy.

It was necessary to meet stiff competition from other communities bidding for the terminal and in order to do so the Jaycees obligated their organization for $5,000, to be applied by Ellis against the purchase price of the building and property if it chooses to exercise an option it has to buy at the end of three years. The Jaycees, in return, have a separate contract with the Sullivans to purchase the site should Ellis decide not to do so.

Impressed With City
Jaycee announcement along with the revelation that the terminal was coming here revealed that because of the $5,000 obligation the organization needs more money and asked all business and professional men who have not contributed to mail or give their checks to the treasurer, who is Robert S. Davenport.

Davenport today said that Caylor, in his negotiations here, appeared to be very much interested in the welfare of his employees, and was greatly impressed with the schools, the church-building program and the television station in this city. He said he was an active member of the Chamber of Commerce at Danville, Ind., and had told the group there that it should

Eleanor Roosevelt Cancels Proposed Trip to Russia

NEW YORK (UPI)—Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt announced today that she has "indefinitely cancelled" her proposed trip to Russia because Soviet officials refused to grant a visa to a Look Magazine writer who was to accompany her. Mrs. Roosevelt said she felt that Soviet officials were "trying to force me to go to Russia on their terms."

She said she and Look's editors were convinced that the Russians "would also insist on everything being on their terms after I got there" and that it would be "very foolish" for her to make the trip on that basis.

Mrs. Roosevelt had been scheduled to leave New York by plane today and to stay in Russia until July 30, gathering material for a series of articles for the magazine. The trip was cancelled after Russia refused to grant visas to either William Attwood or Whitman Basow, Look writers. The magazine had submitted both names to Soviet officials, but only one would have made the trip.

Gov't Economists Predict Fair Weather Economy Rest of Year

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Government economists forecast fair economic weather today as the nation swings into the second half of 1954. They agreed in separate interviews that economic trends at mid-year remain mixed and that no new boom is brewing. But they also agreed there are no signs pointing to a further over-all decline in the economy.

One of them called the current situation "darn good prosperity." Another said there are "no real strong factors to push us up, unless defense spending rises, but also nothing big is going to push us down."

The dip in the nation's economy which started last summer and made itself felt in the key areas of production, employment and personal income began leveling off during the first six months of the year.

Picture Seen Improving
And for the past two months, the interviewed economists feel, the picture has been improving steadily. They point to such favorable trends as rising employment and less unemployment, steady spending by consumers, business and state and local governments, and a steady flow of income which people can spend.

Generally, the economists feel that the employment situation is now critical only in certain localities such as steel and auto centers. Lagging auto sales is the reason for this.

Total employment has climbed in each of the four latest months for which figures are available to a May total of 61,119,000 while the nation's jobless declined in April and May to 3,305,000. Employment set a new record last August when working Americans numbered 63,408,000. The postwar jobless low was last October's 1,622,000.

And the economists think things will get still better on the employment front. Signs that point that way are the continuing construction boom, normal summertime farm activity and the recent upturn in industrial production after a 10 per cent decline from last July's peak. Several hundred thousand temporarily unemployed students have entered the job market, but the economists think there are enough permanent jobs for all graduates.

Economists believe one reason for the business slump has been the reduction in inventories—stocks on the shelves of manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers. Inventories have shrunk $2,500,000,000 since last September when a record $82,000,000,000 was piled up.

Safety Council Reports Decline in May Traffic Deaths

CHICAGO (UPI)—The National Safety Council reported on the eve of the Fourth of July holiday weekend that traffic deaths declined again in May.

The council said May was the fifth consecutive month of 1954 to show a reduction from the corresponding month of the previous year. It was the first time since 1947 that deaths decreased for each of the first five months of the year. Traffic accidents took 2,960 lives in May, a reduction of 3 per cent. The total for the first five months was 13,470, down 5 per cent.

But Ned H. Dearborn, council president, warned drivers to be careful during the approaching holiday.

"It isn't encouraging to think that 430 lives may be snuffed out in auto accidents in one holiday weekend," he said.

Stratton to Return From Vacation Today

SPRINGFIELD (UPI)—Gov. William G. Stratton was expected to return to Illinois today after a 10-day Colorado vacation.

The governor's office said Stratton and his family were due to arrive by train late today.

Lt. Gov. John W. Chapman has been acting governor since Stratton left June 22.

CWA Workers Strike Against Western Electric

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The CIO Communications Workers of America called a strike today against Western Electric Co., in a move that could paralyze telephone service across the country.

A union spokesman said some of the 16,000 members walked off the job at 6 a. m. local time, the strike deadline, and others would be joining them throughout the day, depending on local situations.

Picketing of telephone exchanges which use Western Electric equipment did not begin immediately. A. T. Jones, union vice president and national strike director, declined to discuss picketing plans.

The strike was by CWA workers who install telephone equipment produced by Western Electric at exchanges in 43 states and the District of Columbia. Maine, Vermont, New Hampshire, Massachusetts and Rhode Island were not affected since the New England Bell Telephone Co. does its own installing.

Since most exchange workers also belong to the CWA, telephone service over the entire country would be affected if the installation workers set up picket lines and the exchange workers refuse to cross them.

Since most major cities in the country now have dial system telephones, long distance service would be hardest hit by the walkout.

Local telephone service will not be affected because employees of this exchange belong to another union, Manager Milard H. Lynch stated today. Long distance phone service to some cities might be affected by the strike, he added.

Three Local Girls Pledged to Sororities at University of Illinois

Three local girls have been pledged to membership in sororities at the University of Illinois. It was announced today by the office of the dean of women.

Miss Betty Butler, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Butler, has been named to Alpha Chi Omega; Miss Ann Funkhouser, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. B. G. Funkhouser, has been named to Chi Omega; and Miss Mary Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Shannon Taylor, has been named to Zeta Tau Alpha.

Sorority rushing is held each June that new members may automatically move into their new sorority homes when they go to the campus in September.

Indict Dale on New Charges Of Racketeering

Charges Involve Shakedowns on Various Projects

EAST ST. LOUIS (UPI)—U. S. Atty. Clifford M. Roemer announced today that Evan Dale, boss of the AFL Laborers' Union in Southern Illinois, has been named in an indictment listing 30 counts of labor racketeering.

Roemer said the charges against Dale involved shakedowns on a large number of contractors and construction projects.

Dale was charged specifically with burdening interstate commerce by extorting $67,000 from 16 contractors on Southern Illinois jobs.

He said Dale, previously charged in indictments with evasion of income taxes and labor racketeering, was expected to surrender on the new indictment shortly.

The grand jury voted three indictments naming five persons Wednesday night but, except for Dale, the names of the defendants were withheld pending their arrests.

The grand jury began its inquiry into charges of widespread labor racketeering in the Eastern District of Illinois last February and previously returned nine indictments naming eight persons.

Roemer said FBI and Internal Revenue Service agents are continuing the inquiry and more indictments are expected.

After returning the indictments the grand jury recessed, subject to recall.

The 88-page indictment, the fifth to be returned against Dale, listed the charges against him as follows:

Trinidad Asphalt Manufacturing Co., St. Louis, allegedly paid $1,000 in July, 1951, while paying a section of U. S. 45 near Norris City.

Luh Bros. Construction Co., Inc., Columbia, paid $1,250 to Dale while working on a levee project for the Army Corps of Engineers at Grand Tower in July, 1952.

Tri-State Engineering Co., Benton, paid $500 on three highway construction jobs near Mounds in November, 1952.

E. T. Simons Construction Co., Carbondale, paid $1,200 on two highway jobs in Massac County and at Hamilton in 1952.

Mitchell Contracting Co., Herrin, paid $2,700 on two highway jobs in Alexander and Union counties in July, 1951.

Edgar Stephens & Sons Inc., Cairo, paid $2,912 on construction of track for C & E I railroad into Joppa power plant in August, 1952.

C. J. Moritz Co. Inc., Effingham, paid $4,900 on a Jefferson County highway job in October, 1952.

William Lough & Sons Construction Co. paid $950 on highway job in Williamson county in September, 1952.

R. W. Ford Construction Co. paid $250 on highway construction in Franklin and Williamson counties in December, 1951.

Arrow Petroleum Co., Chicago, paid $10,810 on four highway paving jobs in Franklin, Hamilton, Perry, Jefferson and Marion counties in 1951, 1952 and 1953.

Bituminous Fuel & Oil Co., East St. Louis, paid $2,555 on job at Cairo Municipal Airport and building road into Joppa power plant in 1952.

Charles G. Gilmore Asphalt Products Co., Carbondale, paid $11,500 on seven highway paving jobs in Williamson, Franklin, Union, Pulaski, Johnson, Jackson, Perry and Massac counties in 1952.

Terre Haute, Ind. (UPI)—Mrs. Mary Lou Rogers, 21, was held in jail today in the shooting death of her husband, Alvin, 24, at their West Terre Haute home Wednesday night.

Rogers was killed by a revolver shot during what police said was "domestic trouble."

Authorities said the shooting was witnessed by Shelby Rhoads, 18, Terre Haute.

Dulles Promises Support to Any Anti-Communist Gov't In Guatemala, Latin America

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The United States plans quick action to bolster any anti-Communist government in Guatemala, American officials said today.

The idea is to demonstrate that Guatemala's action in throwing out the Communists will pay off in the Western Hemisphere.

French Abandon Most of Red River Delta Area

HANOI, Indochina (UPI)—The French High Command today announced the abandonment of the entire southern sector of the rich Red River delta because Communist infiltration had made its defense impossible.

The French said 15,000 French troops had been withdrawn from the rice-rich plains and the thriving towns between the Red and Day rivers, because the area was so "totted" by infiltrating Reds that it could not resist a major Communist attack.

The mass evacuation of French forces, described by a military spokesman as "extremely grave but absolutely necessary," turned over to Communist control the two million Vietnamese of the region.

Major Red Victory
It was a major Red victory in which scarcely a single shot was fired.

The French High Command said troops will be concentrated along the supply lines connecting Hanoi and Haiphong, the Gulf of Tonkin port of entry for American munitions.

According to the High Command, France had no choice in giving up the southern half of the delta. The area is populated mostly by rice farmers. Many strongly anti-Communist Roman Catholic priests reside in the abandoned section.

Military sources said the southern sector was honeycombed with Communist troops and the non-Catholic population was almost solidly for the rebels.

The evacuation of the sector indicated the High Command now plans to keep its foothold in north Indochina by defending Hanoi, a corridor surrounding the road and railroad to Haiphong and the Tonkin Gulf port itself.

It was the biggest pullback by the French since the war started almost eight years ago and the French expected it to have devastating effects on free world opinion.

At one swoop the bitterly anti-Communist bishops of Bui Chu and Phat Diem were submerged and lost. Given up, too, were Thet Binh and the textile-producing province of Nam Dinh.

The withdrawal started at dawn Tuesday under heavy air cover. Communist troops immediately moved into Phat Diem.

Wife is Held for Killing Husband

Argument Over Hot-Rods Leaves Teen-Age Youth Dead, Girl Friend, Aged Man Hurt

DETROIT (UPI)—A knife-carrying teenaged boy was shot to death and his girl companion wounded Wednesday night when they called at the home of a 65-year-old man to "straighten out" an argument over the use of hot-rod automobiles in the neighborhood.

The man, William Kirsman, was subdued by police tear gas bombs and carried from his home in critical condition. He was held under police guard at Receiving Hospital for investigation of murder.

Douglas Dudley, 18, who approached Kirsman's home with a butcher knife in his hand, died shortly after the shooting at Mount Carmel Mercy Hospital. His companion, Barbara Kubbe, 16, was hospitalized with bullet wounds in both legs.

Dudley and the girl walked up to Kirsman's home about 9 p. m. accompanied by two other teenagers, Robert Trafelet, 15, and Kathy Koviu, 16.

"When the old man saw that Dudley had a knife in his hand he a beachhead in Central America "has been averted."

He promised unstinting United States support in eliminating conditions in Guatemala and elsewhere in Latin America "which might afford Communism an opportunity to spread its tentacles."

Recognition First Act

One of the first acts, it was learned, will be U. S. diplomatic recognition of the non-Red government expected to be formed in talks underway in San Salvador between leaders of Guatemala's new junta government and rebel leaders.

Economic and military aid is likely to follow as a United States warning against probable new Moscow efforts to infiltrate the hemisphere.

Dulles acknowledged that the need for vigilance in the Americas against Communism has not passed.

"But the people of the United States and of the other American Republics," he said, "can feel that a less onerous grave danger has been averted. Also an example is set which promises increased security for the future. The ambitious and the unscrupulous will be less prone to feel that Communism is the wave of their future."

Pledges U. S. Support

"... Let me assure the people of Guatemala. As peace and freedom are restored to that sister republic, the government of the United States will continue to support the just aspirations of the Guatemalan people. A prosperous and progressive Guatemala is vital to a healthy hemisphere."

"The United States pledges itself not merely to political opposition to Communism, but to help to alleviate conditions in Guatemala and elsewhere which might afford Communism an opportunity to spread its tentacles throughout the Hemisphere. Thus we shall seek in positive ways to make our American example which will inspire men everywhere."

Senate Nears Passage of Tax Reform Bill

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Senate pushed the administration's giant tax reform bill toward passage today by taking another tack in the proposed tax relief for income from stock dividends.

A Democratic move was expected later today to kill the dividend income provision completely. It was given little chance of success.

Senate leaders hoped to get a final vote on the entire bill by tonight but a heavy backlog of proposed amendments left doubt that they could finish before Friday.

By voice vote, the Senate finished the job of trimming the dividend tax relief under a formula proposed Wednesday by Sen. Eugene D. Millikin (R-Colo.), manager of the bill.

The withdrawal started at dawn Tuesday under heavy air cover. Communist troops immediately moved into Phat Diem.

As part of the defeated GOP move to lower personal income taxes, Millikin cut in half the dividend benefit approved by the House.

The House provision would exclude $50 received from dividends from taxable income for the first year of the new tax law and $100 thereafter. It also would permit stockholders to deduct 5 per cent of their dividend income from their tax bill in the first year and 10 per cent thereafter.

Millikin's proposal called for holding these figures at $50 and 5 per cent permanently. The 5 per cent part of his plan was adopted but he failed to submit the other part until today.

The differences between the House and Senate bills still will be subject to negotiation by a House-Senate conference committee.

Would Kill Reforms

Sen. A. Willis Robertson (D-Va.) introduced an amendment today to kill all of the tax reforms in the bill. His amendment, which he later withdrew, would have left nothing in the bill except the provision to renew the 52 per cent tax rate on corporate income for one year through next March 31.

Sen. Wayne L. Morse (Ind-Or.) served notice that he would offer the Robertson amendment later and demand a vote.

Rival Republican and Democratic plans for cutting income taxes were defeated on nearly straight party-line votes late Tuesday. But senators on both sides indicated they were satisfied since, when election time comes, nearly all of them will be able to say they voted in favor of tax cuts for everybody.

And the Eisenhower administration was delighted at the voting because it has been fighting tooth and nail against income tax cuts that would play havoc with its budget.

Unable to Get House Votes for Lower Supports

Rep. Roosevelt Says New York Favors Higher Program

By United Press

Republican leaders said today it looks as though President Eisenhower's farm program is dead for this year, killed apparently by big city Democrats.

The administration wants to abandon the present rigid high farm price support program in favor of flexible supports which almost certainly would be lower.

The congressional farm bloc wants a one-year extension of the present system, however, and the House Agriculture Committee has approved an extension bill.

In a late attempt at compromise, administration forces with President Eisenhower's approval offered a proposal to put a floor of 82½ per cent of parity under price supports next year. Supports on basic crops are fixed at 90 per cent now. But Rep. Franklin D. Roosevelt (D-N.Y.) announced formally that most New York Democrats favor keeping the high support program another year.

Other late news: The Senate Republican Policy Committee proposed new rules to protect the rights of witnesses before investigating committees and to curb the power of committee chairmen. One of the main proposals was that no investigation could be started unless authorized by the Senate or by the full committee having jurisdiction. The policy committee drafted the proposed rules after receiving complaints about the tactics of Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy.

High Life: The Senate Banking Committee heard stories today about girly parties and gambling losses involving former officials of the scandal-ridden FIA. Andrew Frost, fired last week as assistant state FIA manager in New Mexico, refused under the Fifth Amendment to reply when asked if he attended a party for which girls were supplied by contractors doing business with the FIA. Burton C. Bovard, suspended FIA general counsel, conceded he had heard reports that Clyde L. Powell, ousted assistant FIA commissioner, lost large sums gambling.

Pensions: Sponsors predicted early House approval of legislation to deny federal benefits to Alger Hiss or any government employee, serviceman or veteran who pleads the Fifth Amendment. The bill, an outgrowth of moves to deny Hiss a pension, also would prohibit such payments to anyone convicted of perjury, espionage, treason or any other felony.

Atomic: Chairman W. Sterling Cole (R-N.Y.) of the House-Senate Atomic Energy committee forecast early House approval of a new law geared to the peaceful use of the atom. But some Democrats warned that the measure, approved 18 to 0 Wednesday, faces a fight on a side issue involving the Tennessee Valley Authority and the purchase of power from private companies by the Atomic Energy Commission.

Senator Butler Suffers Stroke
WASHINGTON (UPI)—Sen. Hugh Butler (R-Neb.) was rushed to the Naval Medical Center at Bethesda, Md., early today in a critical condition after suffering a stroke at his home.

Butler apparently suffered the stroke in his sleep. He was found unconscious this morning and was taken to the hospital.

Several hours after he entered the hospital, Butler's aides reported he was still unconscious.

Butler is serving his third term in the Senate. He was elected in 1940 and re-elected in 1946 and 1952.

Nebraska lost one senator this year—Dwight D. Griswold, who died April 26. Mrs. Eva Bowring, wealthy ranch owner, was appointed to succeed him and was sworn in April 26.

NOSEGAY FOR H. S. T.
(Chicago Tribune)

Merely because he is very sick man, we shall not pretend for a moment that Harry Truman is either a great statesman or a noble character. The phrases that we applied to him in other years were warm, but the provocation was great and the condemnation was no more severe than the facts warranted.

Nevertheless, in all sincerity, we express the wish that Mr. Truman will make a speedy recovery and that he will remain with us long. There are a lot of things wrong with Harry Truman but there always was more candor, less hypocrisy, and more natural man in his words and behavior than most politicians would dare display.

PRICE PROPPERS

The Senate Agriculture Committee surprised its chairman, the venerable Sen. George Aiken of Vermont, by voting 8 to 7 to continue high rice farm price supports for another year. So much for the burden of supporting President Eisenhower's plan for lower, more flexible supports must be borne by senators on the floor.

Aiken seems to be confident the program may still win out, but he also was reasonably sure his committee would back the President.

The House Agriculture Committee earlier voted by a wider margin to scuttle Mr. Eisenhower's plan, and it is considered extremely doubtful that the full House will stand with him. It was the Senate that was counted on to drive along the flexible program, and the committee's action has now put this in question.

Possibly members of both houses are "making a record" for the farm vote, expecting a presidential veto to accomplish Mr. Eisenhower's aim but get them off the hook. If this is their thought, one might say it is practical, but hardly likely to stir admiration as evidence of either courage or statesmanship.

Tips on Traffic Safety

By CHARLES F. CARPENTIER
Secretary of State

Summer thunder showers or electrical storms can come up quite suddenly, and you may find yourself caught in one out on the highway, especially if you are on a long weekend drive or a vacation trip.

If you are caught in those circumstances, stay in your car. Don't leave it to stand in the shelter of a tree, a signboard or some other object. Your car, particularly if it is of all steel construction, is the safest place in an electrical storm.

The rubber tires provide insulation, and the only precaution you need to take is to avoid touching anything metal on the inside of the car. It may take some extra self control to stay in the car with thunder and lightning seeming to crash all around you, but it is your best bet.

A copy of the completely new "Rules of the Road" booklet will be sent to you free upon request. Write to CHARLES F. CARPENTIER, Secretary of State, Springfield, Illinois.

And a Tax on Our Sanity

For Your Boy in Korea: 'Operation Opportunity'

By SUMNER AHLBUM
NEA Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK (NEA)—If your boy is a soldier in Korea—or if he faces the prospect of duty over there—don't feel sorry for him.

Although Korea is not exactly a picnic, even in peace, it is also the land of opportunity under the Army's new program to wipe out the boredom that often goes with peacetime duty overseas.

Under "operation opportunity," your boy is more than likely to come home far better equipped for his civilian future than he was when he left.

"We accept the responsibility for turning out better citizens," says Maj. Gen. Charles W. Christenberry, who is now voluntarily retiring from active service after supervising current morale special services plans for off-duty opportunities for the uniformed personnel of the Far East—and prior to that for the entire Army.

"And," he adds, "the nation has a right to expect us to turn back the young men better than we got them."

General Christenberry, a wartime veteran of the Mediterranean theater, was Chief of the Special Services Division of the Army before he went to Korea in 1952 as Chairman of the Deputy Chief of Staff. A year later he became assistant chief of staff for personnel, Far East and UN Commands.

In those posts, he was able to watch at first-hand the development of "operation opportunity," the project closest to his heart. He will continue to watch it in his new role as chief executive officer of the American-Korean Foundation under his former Eighth Army boss, Gen. James A. Van Fleet, chairman of the Foundation.

In Korea today—and in Japan and Okinawa—hundreds of American boys are getting their high school diplomas. Scores are building up credits toward university degrees. Others are taking courses, not for credit but as preparation for some particular aim in life.

These are not catch-as-catch-can courses conducted by officers as extra-curricular duty, but organized education. Many of the instructors are from the faculty of the University of California, attached to the Far East forces as civilians. Scores of officers and enlisted men help out as part-time instructors.

With 45 per cent of its soldiers under voting age, the off-duty training program also concentrates on developing better reading and study habits for the men, on keeping them abreast of current affairs, on developing teamwork in sports, on showing them why they are in Korea and how their job fits into the Indochina picture and the rest of the Far East.

"What we are trying to do,"

Miss Marlene Rann Attends Convention Of Music Sorority

Miss Marlene Rann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Rann, Carrier Mills, attended the national convention of Mu Phi Epsilon, professional music sorority, held this past week in Salt Lake City, Utah. She was a business delegate from Epsilon Kappa chapter of Mu Phi Epsilon from Southern Illinois university in Carbondale.

The national president presented Epsilon Kappa chapter, of which Miss Rann is past president, with the special service award which was a check for 25 dollars. This was given to the S.I.U. chapter above 75 other chapters.

Highlights of the convention were conducted tours to the Great Salt Lake, Bingham copper mine and Temple Square. There was also a tea and reception at the governor's mansion on Thursday afternoon.

The 1956 national convention will be held in Rochester, N. Y.

Gold, copper, tin, platinum, hard and soft coal, marble gypsum and limestone, all are mineral resources to be found in Alaska.

explains Christenberry, "is to integrate the uniformed man and woman into the community life they'll share later. We are also trying to show the people back home what their boys are doing—and why.

"Our men overseas must be kept tough and ready, of course. This calls for continuous, intensive military field training, which a soldier expects—and respects. But it is also important that interesting off-duty programs are provided."

Christenberry, who is known to countless soldiers as "General Chris," is a tall, scholarly-looking man with a voice that is rich in both friendliness and the zeal of a missionary.

That zeal extends to the people of Korea as well as to the American boys helping them defend their peace.

"I know the Korean people and their potentials," says the general, who has sat in on that country's civilian and civil affairs. "They are worth saving. They are rich with ancient culture and take naturally to Christianity. It won't happen tomorrow, but in the long range view, the Republic of Korea is strong in the potential of becoming a democratic nation."

Apparently some of this zeal for Korea has rubbed off on the American soldiers there in the course of "operation opportunity." For in addition to voluntary studies, sports, fishing, hunting, and other assorted off-duty activities, many of the soldiers have pitched in to help the Koreans rebuild their war-shattered resources.

GIs have helped build new homes, schools and churches with skills they learned in the Army and will undoubtedly put to use in their civilian future. They have helped in the restoration of Chosen and Iwa Universities. Boys from farms have learned how to clean out rice paddies, bogged down by the rip-tides of battle.

The official off-duty training program of voluntary activities is being continuously worked over with America's top educators and recreational experts. Christenberry is frank to admit it is "not entirely successful," but is becoming increasingly so.

Such a program "requires patience," he adds, "because we're working with a lot of young men, many of whom have never had such opportunities before. Some of the 'tougher' boys resist it, but the Army, Navy and Air Force men out there are learning more about the world these days than any other comparable group."

MAJ. GEN. CHRISTENBERRY: "We accept the responsibility."

One handicap to morale, he points out, is letters from home in which parents, without intending to, encourage homesickness and griping by feeling sorry for the fact their boys have to be in the Far East.

"Instead," he urges, "they should be encouraging their boys to take advantage of the opportunities they're offered. Korea is no picnic, but it's no worse, either, than a boy helping earn his way through college."

On retirement from active service, General Christenberry was awarded an oak leaf cluster to the Distinguished Service Medal for his work in the Far East Command.

But he is not retiring from Korea. He is going to continue to work in the interests of the people in whose future he has strong faith. Like "operation opportunity" for the men in service, the American-Korean Foundation's aim is to "help the Koreans to help themselves."

Ike and Mamie Celebrate 38th Anniversary

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower and his "Mamie" celebrated their 38th wedding anniversary Wednesday night at a festive White House party featuring a group sing of old-time favorites.

The nation's first couple were married 38 years ago today in Denver, Colo. at the home of Mrs. Eisenhower's parents.

A quiet celebration was planned this afternoon when members of the White House staff expected to offer their congratulations at a function in the family apartment on the executive mansion's second floor.

The President and Mrs. Eisenhower usually exchange gifts on their wedding anniversary but the White House had no comment on that.

The nation's first couple invited 95 guests—the chief executive's West Point classmates, their wives and widows—to the anniversary eve celebration.

After dinner the party moved in to the East Room where an Air Force violinist struck up the "Anniversary Waltz" and the two wedding marches.

Then, as the guests called out

imitate the activities of the organization here.

J. Cecil Sullivan today said that he expected to have the building constructed by Aug. 15 and that the terminal will be set up here by that time. There will be 12 employees at the terminal. The trucking line has 64 drivers on the Indianapolis-to-Memphis run and Harrisburg will be the home location for the drivers. Nearly all will move here, Taylor stated.

Five Year Lease

The contract signed yesterday calls for 4.36 acres of ground, less a strip 150 by 300 feet which the Sullivan plan to improve. It calls for a five-year lease, with Ellis paying rent at the rate of $250 per month for three years, then 50 per cent of the rental paid shall be applied on the purchase of the property if Ellis chooses to exercise an option to buy at the end of the three-year period.

If Ellis doesn't choose to buy, the lease continues for the full five years, with the lease to be renegotiated. In event Ellis fails to purchase, the Jaycees in their separate agreement have the opportunity to purchase the site under the same terms given Ellis, and Ellis or others then would deal with the organization if purchased from the Sullivans.

The Sullivans will construct a masonry building with 2,600 feet of floor space, with concrete floor, containing garage, office, two rest rooms, parts room, and equipped with modern heating and plumbing systems. There will be either steel beam or bar joist roof containing overhead doors 13 feet, six inches high and 12 feet wide.

The great portion of the land included in the contract will be for truck parking and this will be considered and chatted. There will be a 150 foot frontage and the land extends back 901 feet, changing from 150 to 300 feet wide for the back 600 feet.

Sullivan said the building, ground, grading, filling and surfacing is a $24,000 deal which is bringing to Harrisburg "the biggest thing that has happened here in years."

The Ellis company has terminals in Bay City, Flint, Pontiac, Lansing, Jackson, Saginaw and Detroit, Mich.; Fort Wayne, Anderson and Indianapolis, Ind., Memphis, Tenn., and the Marion, Ky., terminal which is moving here.

This is the second business brought to Harrisburg by the Jaycees to boost the local payroll. About two years ago they were successful in getting a cap factory to set up on the third floor of the Cummins building. It now employs 100 women.

their selections, the Marine Band swung into tunes that were popular when President Eisenhower, a second lieutenant just out of West Point, was courting Mrs. Eisenhower in Denver.

"Sweethearts," "The Chocolate Soldier," "Girl From Utah," and the song reputed to be the President's favorite, "Down Among the Sheltering Palms," were among the tunes that rang through the White House.

MIRACLES

Christianity started out with miracles and it hasn't changed.

Since the time Jesus was on earth during His ministry, people haven't changed much. They are about the same today. They have the same kind of sins, same kind of heartaches, same kind of sicknesses and diseases, same kind of worries and troubles, same kind of burdens, same need of God, same need of salvation, same need of prayer, the same need of the Holy Ghost the Comforter.

The same need of miracles, same need of healing from God, same need of Jesus.

People can cry now just as much as they cried then, worry just as much, be just as disappointed, have just as much longing in their hearts and be just as lonely.

Luke 4:16, 18, 22: "... and, as his custom was, He (Jesus) went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and stood up for to read. The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised. And all bare him witness, and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth."

The healing and miracles which Jesus performed during His ministry was a demonstration of how it should be done now.

Healing and miracles are needed more now because there are more sick people in the world now than then.

Healing and miracles are for the asking, but the asking must be done in prayer.

They who seek healing from God are taking a son treatment from God's Son.

Jesus can heal people today from a distance like He healed the centurion's servant from a distance. Matthew 8:13.

Jesus can perform miracles today like He did when He was on earth. He said, "I am with you always, even unto the end of the world."

The same Jesus who can remove a person's sins today can also remove their sicknesses and diseases in this present time.

Jesus hasn't lost any of His power to save, and He hasn't lost any of His power to perform miracles.

The only people who are hopeless are those who haven't received Jesus as their Saviour. A man with out God doesn't know how poor he is. Revelation 3:17.

God can destroy disease germs in a person's body like He stopped the plague of flies and the plague of lice in Egypt at the word of Moses.

God doesn't have to stop with healing. He can also perform miracles and restore that which the canker worm has eaten.

The gift of miracles and the gift of healing should go hand in hand. Some sick folks need a miracle, some just a healing.

The man with the withered hand needed a miracle; Peter's wife's mother who was sick with a fever, needed a healing.

MIRACLES FROM JESUS

NEW LEXINGTON, OHIO, MRS. S. Testifies: "I am healed of high blood pressure. I am able to do my work now."

MEILVILLE, LA. MRS. H. States: "You have been praying for me for a long time. I was told I had a cancer, but God healed it. I do not have any cancer."

PINCKARD, ALA., MRS. W. Writes: "The growth on my nose has healed. Oh how I do thank you wonderful Lord, and you good people for your prayers."

BUCKHANNON, W. VA., MRS. S. Reports: "Some months ago I wrote for prayer. My sister was at the point of death, no one thought she could live. She is doing wonderful, and is the happiest person you ever saw. My health is much better than it has been for years."

JOHNSTOWN, PA., MRS. S. Rejoices: "Two weeks ago I wrote you to pray for me. I had an ulcer that wouldn't heal, and from that day on I started to feel better, and now today, my ulcer is completely healed."

WINDSOR, HTS., W. VA., MRS. V. Writes: "Your address was given to me by a fellow worker, Mr. P., who was cured of mental trouble, and his wife was cured of arthritis by the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ."

WHEELING, W. VA., MRS. C. Rejoices: "About a year ago I requested your prayers for relief from a growth on the eyeball of my right eye. Thank God, it is gone."

LAS VEGAS, NEV., From M.: "I had a tumor as large as a man's fist, and now it's real small, thank God for my health."

WARREN, PA., MRS. B. Avers: "I had a bad case of eczema, my arm and elbow were terrible. Now it is about gone, and you wouldn't know it had been on my arm. I saw your Ad in our Newspaper."

WELCH, W. VA., From R. M.: "Thanks to Jesus and you for my miracle healing. I had something growing on my leg, and I was told it had to be taken off. I requested prayer from you, and in 2 weeks it was gone."

GLENCOE, ONT., CANADA. MISS McL. Declares: "Have had stomach ulcer since 17 years, had to watch what I ate so carefully until nearly 2 months ago when you prayed for me, and brought relief. Since then I have been able to eat anything I want."

PINE BLUFF, ARK., W. J. Testifies: "I had a pain in my knee and it was swollen. Since you prayed for me, I haven't had a pain since, and the swelling left."

HOT SPRINGS, ARK., MRS. C. States: "I was healed of gall bladder trouble before my request for your wonderful prayers had time to reach you."

WARREN, OHIO, Mr. F. Reports: "I've been suffering with heart trouble since Dec. 1952. Now I thank God and you folks for praying for me, I'm feeling completely well."

Legislation Wiping Out Township School Trustees, Treasurers in Effect

SPRINGFIELD —— Laws wiping out offices of school township trustees and treasurers in 100 Illinois counties became effective today.

The legislation, approved by the 1953 General Assembly, applied to all counties except Cook, Madison and St. Clair.

The laws also abolished the permanent fund of the township if its average income for three years wasn't $2,500. If it was more than that, township land commissioners are set up to manage the funds.

Sponsors of the legislation said that under the present school system, township trustees and treasurers had little or no duties.

Rep. Charles W. Clabaugh (R-Champaign), the leading sponsor, said that in 509 townships the offices were "either vacant or inactive."

Clabaugh showed figures listing 1,776 treasurers in Illinois in the 1951-52 school year. He said the treasurers' expenses were $666,105 more than the income of their offices.

Another law which wipes out most of the non-high school territory in the state also took effect today. It, too, was passed in 1953.

All non-high territory except that adjacent to charter or unit district was eliminated last July 1.

All non-high territory with less than 60 pupils and which is adjacent to a unit district was abolished as of today.

Other non-high areas will be wiped out by July 1, 1956.

Seeks Divorce

Thomas B. Tanner has filed a complaint in circuit court seeking a divorce from Doris Tanner.

DR. I. P. BRACKETT, center, of Southern Illinois University's speech and hearing clinic demonstrates the Ellanae Pronunciator, an instrument he used to teach children with speech difficulties to articulate. He explains that a child will often talk to a machine when he will not talk to a person. Looking on are students and professional clinicians who are taking an orientation course with the SIU clinic this summer in preparation to assisting with 30 handicapped children who will arrive July 3 for six weeks of therapy treatment and camping at Giant City State Park under the auspices of Southern and the State division of Services for Crippled Children. Left to right are Mrs. Esther Levine, St. Louis, teacher in the Ames school; David Levine, St. Louis, Central Institute for the Deaf; Dr. Brackett; Peggy Nichols, St. Louis, University of Missouri student; and Burdette Thurman, Harrisburg, school speech correctionist. Report Nashville Man Forced to Drive Away with Gunmen

OKAWVILLE, Ill. —— State police spread an alarm today for two or three men who are reported to have forced Elmer Hake, 66, of Nashville, to drive away with them at gunpoint from Okawville late Wednesday.

Hake has been missing 18 hours. Police said Walter Streuter reported he saw Hake stop his car at an intersection and another car carrying two or three men pull up behind it about 4 p. m.

Streuter said a man got out of the second car, believed to be a black 1953 Chevrolet, and entered Hake's 1953 blue Plymouth. The youth said the man appeared to force Hake from the driver's seat and then both cars headed south.

State Police Lt. Elza Brantley at Du Quoin said an alarm was broadcast for the men for "forcing Hake to drive away with them at gunpoint or an armed robbery."

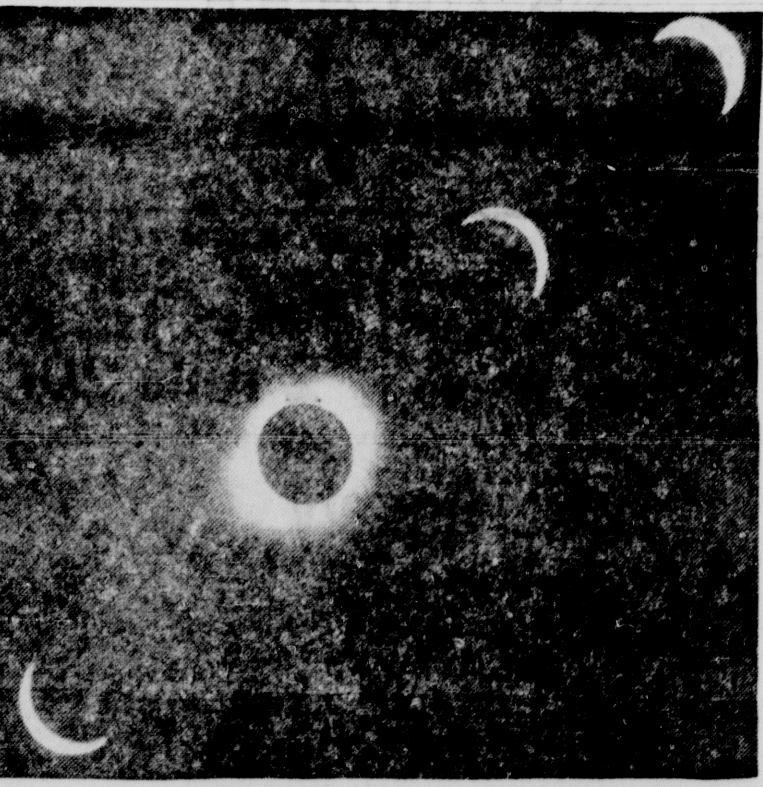

Hake's family became alarmed and notified authorities when he failed to return from his job at the State Highway Department office in St. Clair County to which he commuted daily.

Hake is 5 feet 11 inches tall and weighs about 200 pounds. He wears glasses, and was wearing gray slacks and sport shirt Wednesday.

Long Bridges

Florida's Overseas Highway to Key West ranks as one of the world's longest ocean-going roads in the world. One link, the Long Bridge, jumps seven miles of open water. The Thousand Islands International Bridge between New York State and Ontario leaps from island to island for eight and a half miles. The San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge extends eight miles, including a tunnel in the middle through an island. A railroad bridge over Lake Pontchartrain in Louisiana is seven miles long, with a nearby highway bridge of five miles. Gandy Bridge near Tampa, Florida, which like the Chesapeake Bay Bridge is part causeway, totals six miles.

Federated Clubs Schedule Meeting Dates

Mrs. Roy Milburn, New Burnside, president of the 24th District, Illinois Federation of Women's clubs, went to Mt. Vernon Wednesday to attend a meeting of district presidents with Mrs. M. E. Bruce, East St. Louis, regional director and state vice-chairman.

Mrs. Gobel Patton, West Frankfort, president of the 24th district, Mrs. H. L. Dollahan, Lawrenceville, president of the 23rd district, Mrs. B. E. Chapman, Edwardsville, president of District 22, and Mrs. Milburn were present. The meeting was held at the Emerson hotel and dates for the district and regional meetings were scheduled. The regional fall convention will be held at Flora, Wednesday, Sept. 29, and the spring convention of the 24th district will be held Wednesday, April 27, 1955, at Metropolis. The first board meeting in the 24th district will be held Sept. 21, at Equality at the Methodist church, Mrs. Milburn said.

Birthday Dinner For Mrs. Noah Givens

Mrs. Nash Givens, whose birthday was Wednesday, was honored with a birthday dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Weir at the Weir home near Dering mine, Eldorado RFD 2. Gladys centered the table, and homemade ice cream was served with the lovely birthday cake after dinner. Mr. Givens, and Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Weir were among those present.

Mrs. W. R. Hobbs and her daughter, Mrs. Archie Ledbetter, have had as guests her cousin, Mrs. Nedie Leonard, who left Wednesday to return to Chicago, and the son and daughter-in-law of Mrs. Hobbs, Mr. and Mrs. Hones Swan, Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Archie Ledbetter now occupy their home on Rt. 13 west of Harrisburg, which Mr. Ledbetter, a railroad engineer, constructed on a one and one half acre tract, near the home of Dr. and Mrs. B. G. Funkhouser.

Mrs. Sophia Alexander of Carmi, formerly of Harrisburg, has just returned from a two weeks' vacation in Louisville, Ky., with her son, Doug Alexander, and family and her brother, R. R. Sullivan and family. She reports a good time even if the temperature did go over a hundred. She enjoyed the Sullivan houseboat on the Ohio river along with other amusements.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Gilley left today for Austin, Tex., where they will visit with his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Gilley. Mrs. Alta Peter will assume the duties of Mrs. Gilley, who is society editor at The Daily Register, during her vacation.

Mrs. Madge Daugherty, Raleigh, has gone to Joliet to visit her daughter, Mrs. Jacqueline Wesley. Another daughter, Arlene Daugherty, employed in St. Louis, met her there.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Upton, Pontiac, Mich., are in Harrisburg visiting relatives and friends.

Guests present were Mr. and Mrs. John Cape and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Wilson Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Coy Brown and daughter, Sharon Lee, returned home Wednesday from Miami Springs, Fla., where they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Homer Vineyard. Mrs. Brown's brother-in-law and sister. They were accompanied to Harrisburg by Mrs. Earl Russell Sr., Gainesville, Fla., who is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Huston, RFD 2.

Mrs. Eldith Hatfield and son, Stephen Lee, are visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer McCormack. Mrs. Hatfield and son flew from Dana Point, Calif., and were met in St. Louis, Mo., by the McCormacks.

Mr. and Mrs. Bronzel Waltz have as their guests this week their nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Anderson and children, Dixie and Johnny, of Rockford and Miss DeAnna Rae Maddox.

Mrs. Clara Turner, 319 East Logan, has received word that her son, Guy, who works at Manteno, is seriously ill in the medical hospital.

Lt. Gen. Myers Is Expected to Head Scott Base

WASHINGTON (UP) — Lt. Gen. Charles T. Myers is expected to be named to head the Air Training Command at Scott Air Force Base, Ill., informed sources said today.

It also was reported that Lt. Gen. Hubert R. Harmon is in line for designations as superintendent of the new Air Force Academy.

Both nominations would be made by the White House to the Senate. Myers is now chief of the U. S. Northeast Command with headquarters at Peperrell Air Force Base, Newfoundland. He would replace Lt. Gen. Robert W. Harper, who has just retired.

Harmon has been assistant to Air Secretary Harold E. Talbott and former Secretary Thomas K. Finletter on Air Academy matters. He is 62, and was twice recalled from retirement to promote the academy project. Presumably he would be superintendent for a brief period during the academy's inauguration.

Harmon was a West Point classmate of President Eisenhower.

Churchill Leaves For Home

NEW YORK (UP) — Prime Minister Winston Churchill left for home today after conferences with President Eisenhower which the British ambassador to the United States said had increased chances for world peace.

Churchill, who conferred five days with the President in Washington and spent 20 hours in talks with officials in Canada, declined to see the press prior to sailing on the Queen Elizabeth.

However, British Ambassador Sir Roger Makins, who conferred with both Churchill and British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden aboard ship, said in an interview later that the two countries "are in full agreement as to how we are going to proceed" in the troubled world situation.

Asked whether he believed the Churchill-Eisenhower conferences increased chances of peace, Makins replied: "yes, I do."

Asked to explain why, he replied: "Because I think the chances of peace always improve when our two countries stand firmly together."

Israel, Jordan Urged to Halt Holy Land Battles

JERUSALEM — The chief United Nations truce supervisor called directly on the governments of Israel and Jordan today to halt the flaming gun battles that exploded into the hottest Jewish-Arab Holy Land crisis in months.

Maj. Gen. Vagn Bennike asked an immediate cease-fire to end the scattered fighting in which 4 persons have been killed and 22 wounded since Wednesday.

Shells crashed and bullets whined through the ancient holy city of Jerusalem Wednesday night and again today in a bitter upsurge of hostilities.

Jordan and Israel each blamed the other for starting the shooting. Each blamed the other for breaching the cease-fire agreement.

Freed on Bond at Marion for Beating Daughter

MARION, Ill. — Joe Pedigo, 39, was free on $3,000 bond today on a charge of aggravated assault for beating his daughter, Patsy, 15, with a belt, mop handle and wire the backyard at 2 a. m. because it was too hot for them to sleep.

The state's attorney's office said Pedigo took Patsy into the house, locked her in a room and beat her with a belt until it broke. Then he used the mop handle and wire to beat the girl, who was described as small for her age, until blood from cuts came through her nightclothes, authorities said.

Pedigo's preliminary hearing was set for July 14.

Former Eddyville Woman Dies

Mrs. Grace King, widow of Thomas King, formerly of Eddyville, died today at 4:10 a. m. at the home of her daughter, Miss Melba King, in Battle Creek, Mich. The body will be returned to Eddyville for the funeral and burial which will be Sunday at Old Home church.

Sell Farm

Circuit court records today showed that Dr. James H. Lewis and Ruby Lewis of Harrisburg have sold a farm they owned south of Carrier Mills to Elmer and Carolyn Nurrenbern of Mt. Vernon. The purchase price shown on the deed was $36,500.

U. S. Steel Raises Price $3 Per Ton

NEW YORK (AP) — The United States Steel Corp. today raised steel prices an average of $3 a ton. Other steel firms were expected to take similar action following the recent wage settlement with the steelworkers.

Sen. Knowland Asks Reappraisal of U. S. Policy

Says Communists Have Won Major Victory in Asia

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Republican Leader William F. Knowland (Calif.) said today the Communists have won a major victory in Asia by the "thinly disguised surrender" of French forces in the southern sector of Indochina's Red River delta.

He made the statement in a Senate speech asserting that the time has come for the "agonizing reappraisal" of U. S. foreign policy which Secretary of State John Foster Dulles once mentioned.

Knowland did not spell out what changes he favors in U. S. policy, but he made it clear that he wants this country and its allies to take a much tougher line—even at the risk of war—to halt Red aggression in Southeast Asia.

"How many more Communist victories must be gained in Asia before the free world recognizes its danger?" he cried.

Knowland told the Senate that he is so strongly opposed to admission of Red China to the United Nations that if it should ever come about he would resign the Senate GOP leadership and crusade for American withdrawal from the U. N.

As we meet here today, our ally, France, in a thinly disguised surrender, is being required to permit 10 million Vietnamese in the Red River delta and northern Viet Nam to pass under Communist control. The net result of these developments will be a Communist victory in Asia of no mean proportions," Knowland said.

"For the moment the free nations of the world seem to be faced with inertia. A sense of futility and paralysis has gripped a number of the free nations of the world. This is bound to encourage further Communist adventures in Asia or elsewhere."

Knowland asked if any responsible statesman could believe that it would be easier to deal with the Communists after they have increased their stockpile of atomic bombs and their ability to deliver them over the next five years.

Asks What Comes Next

"Will nations which have been conditioned to not risking war in Viet Nam be more prepared to risk it in Cambodia, Laos, Thailand, Burma, Malaya, India, Pakistan, Formosa, Japan, Indonesia, the Philippines, Australia and New Zealand?"

"Is the American public to first fully realize the grave consequences of the chain reaction now in process only when future demands are made on us for Alaska and Hawaii?"

Policeman Wounded By Mental Patient Fights for Life

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — A policeman fought for his life today and four other persons were hospitalized with gun wounds inflicted by a mental patient who shot it out with police until he was killed.

The gunman, Howard Ellis, 54, stood off more than 200 policemen Wednesday before officers charged his fortress home and shot him down as he fired a last desperate blast.

Ellis, on convalescent leave from a mental hospital, wounded nine persons before he was slain.

In critical condition at General Hospital was Patrolman Paul White, 39. He had chest, neck and arm wounds and doctors feared he would not live.

Seriously wounded were Patrolmen Dora Ward, 27, and Merlin Lyon, 38. Reported in fair condition were the victim's wife, Janie, 56, and Lt. Paul Pearcey, 60.

Four other officers shot by the deranged Negro were released after treatment.

The shooting began shortly before noon when Mrs. Ellis, disturbed because her husband beat one of their five foster children, threatened to have him recommitted to Central State Hospital.

In Memoriam

In memory of John Michael Yuhus, who passed away July 1, 1949 and whose birthday is July 2.

Sweet tiny flower of heavenly birth.

He was too fair to bloom on earth.

His memory is as dear today. As in the hour he passed away. And while he lies in peaceful sleep.

His memory we shall always keep.

Sadly missed by mother, daddy and sister.

Snyder, Mays And Musial IN THE Sport Parade

By OSCAR FRALEY

United Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK — The hottest debate in the National League today centered around whether Brooklyn's Duke Snider or the Giants' Willie Mays was the better outfielder—and everybody seemed to be overlooking the fact that Stan Musial still was the best of them
all.

You can build a strong case for the Duke of Flatbush. And you can pile up a lot of evidence for the amazing Willie.

But as far as this corner is concerned the standings as of the moment are: 1, Musial; 2, Snider, and 3, Mays.

Considering the view from here,
Musial wins hands down with one of the hottest bats he has ever wielded. "The Man" is having one of his greatest years, and while his throwing arm may not be the best in baseball, or even in the National League, he can field with any of them.

Musial, of course, has a lot more
age on him than his two rivals.
He'll be 34 soon, while Snider is only 27 and Alabama Willie is but
23. Which means that before too long, either Snider or Mays is going to have a chance to step into the top spot.

As of the moment, and for the 1954 season alone, you have to go for the Duke over Willie.

Snider has been wielding a much more potent bat. In 68 games, he was leading the league in hitting with a .370 mark, was second in hits and runs batted in and was well up in home runs with 19.
Some critics contend that he gets
handed batter in a right handed lineup which continually faces

Undoubtedly this is a help. But his figures still go into the books
as they are recorded at the plate,
regardless with which arm the pitcher happens to be throwing.

Willie hitting .323.
Mays, though, has been sensational since coming back from service. Willie is hitting a fat .323, leads in home runs with 24 and has knocked in 55 runs.

Mays has a better throwing arm
than Snider and is a more spectacular fielder. But don't think that the Duke can't go far out to pull them in. They're still talking about a game at Philadelphia on May 31
when Snider climbed the wall to make a game-saving catch.

As a team inspiration, too, you have to hand it to Mays. It has been his return and the amazing carefree camaraderie which he generates, which made a threat out of the Giants. The Duke is more on the mechanical side, leaving inspirational matters to some of his teammates as PeeWee Reese, Jackie Robinson and Roy Campa-
nella.

Mims Demands Return Bout After Upset Draw

WASHINGTON — Middle-
weight contender Holly Mims of Washington today demanded a return bout with Bobby Dykes, who held him to an upset draw in the dull 10-round television fight.

Dykes, who has homes in Miami,
Fla., and San Antonio, Tex., said,
"I'll be glad to give him a return anytime. I thought I won going away. But I'll make sure next time. He's an easy guy to fight."

Col. Harvey L. Miller, boxing commissioner for the District of Columbia and executive secretary of the National Boxing Association,
said: "Yes, I approve the draw decision of the ring officials. However, I was disappointed with the bout."

Mims, a bobbing and weaving
Washington Negro, forced the fighting in nearly every round
Wednesday in Uline Arena. But Dykes' holding and wrestling tactics prevented Holly's attack from being effective at close quarters.

Mims, ranked second among the world's 160-pound contenders, was favored at 3-1 over unranked Bobby; but the voting of the three ring officials made them as even-stephens as their ages. Each is 25.
Mims scaled 155 pounds to Dykes' 159 1-2.

Sea level in the distant past dropped many feet when untold tons of water were locked up in advancing glaciers. In the last 100 years water released from melting glaciers and ice sheets has raised sea level, about 2 1/2 inches all over the world.

RECORD WRECKER — Dianne
Leather Birchfield established a new women's record for the mile
and then did the same thing in the 380-yard run. Her time for the half mile in the Women's Amateur Athletic Association Championships in London was two minutes, nine seconds. (NEA)

To Transfer 10 Ringleaders of Reformatory Riot

PONTIAC, Ill. (UP)—Ten prisoners who were tabbed as "ringleaders" in the riot at the State Reformatory here last week were transferred to the Joliet Prison today. Warden Daniel E. Bergen announced.

Bergen said there wasn't enough room at Pontiac to keep these 10 prisoners in isolation. He would not reveal their names.

Bad Foggie
Quite troubled, a woman in Brookton, Mass., complained to the dog-catcher that a peeping-Tom puppy was peeking into her bedroom window every night.

Ben Hogan's coyness about the
so-called "secret" that made him
golf's greatest brings a snicker
from his fellow pros... who know
a shift of the left thumb did the trick. He holds it straight down
the shaft instead of slightly to the side, creating the controlled fade
from left to right.

Jim Wilson, Milwaukee's no-hit
hurler, is another reclaimed project of Paul Richards, who groom-ed his comeback to the majors in Seattle after (1) Jim's skull was fractured by a drive through the box by Hank Greenberg, (2) his leg was fractured by a ball hit by ex-Bronx Chuck Stevens. Wilson still has a plate in his skull from the Greenberg blow.

Chico skipper Paul Richards discards his customary richness to tell this one on himself: "We were having bunting practice. I didn't like the way one of the rookies was handling himself. I grabbed the bat and said, 'You can't bunt like that. Here, let me show you.' I stuck up the bat, but the ball glanced off and hit me right below the eye. The youngster grinned, 'You're right, Mr.
Richards. I CAN'T bunt like that!'"

Which reminds us of the time
Ducky Medwick, managing at Tampa, was censuring one of his young hands for going after balls far out of the strike zone. The rookie bleated, "But, Mr. Medwick, I read where you were the greatest of bad ball hitters."
"I was," replied Ducky. "But I used a Reach bat."

Gene Sarazen, who won the Senior Golf Championship of the PGA
last winter, sails for Southport,
England, to play 36 holes of match play with Percy Allis, the British senior professional champ.
And who remembers back in 1937
when Sarazen, now 52, clinched
the first American Ryder Cup triumph on foreign soil, by rallying from three down on the back side
to shoot a 33 for the decisive 1-up triumph over... the same Percy
Allis, now a sprightly 54.

Vignette of two hustlers: From

like a red-blinded bull to impale
Nellie... who cart-wheeled, bounced up, held the ball for the force and teasingly thrust it in Hank's face.

Ex-foottallers who turn to baseball have trouble with pitches thrown across the letters... Irv Noren of the Yanks always scrapes the dirt in the batter's box after he strikes out... Sherm Lollar
of the White Sox bounces at the plate like he's got foam rubber in his heels... Minnie Minoso wears his trousers lower than any other major leaguer.

We'd like Jim Rivera in our corner if any fists are slung on the diamond... The Indians' problem is what to do with Vic Wertz
after Al Rosen gets back, because Vic gets fat sitting on the bench.

Don Johnson is a major league
hurler now, says Casey Stengel, because he added four or five pitches to his once lone fast ball and learned how to hold runners
on base.

Now that Tom Alston's tailed off,
as he figured to, you can expect Ray (Jabbo) Jablonski to shift
from third to first for the Cards.

Billy Hoelt of the Tigers has settled down from his Class D days
when he once was pinched for throwing firecrackers at passing outs (one landed in the car of a police lieutenant).

Between you'n'me, most ballplayers are agreed you can't intentionally hit a sacrifice fly...

Jaycees, Texaco, Ronnie's, Palace Win Kiwanis Tilts

In yesterday's games in the Kiwanis league the Jaycees defeated
the Athletic House, 10-6; the Texaco Chiefs, beat the Coca-Colas,
8-5; Ronnie's Studio downed the Karnes Hardware team, 13-3; and the Palace Clothing nine blanked
the NYC Sunrise Park team, 9-0.

Edwards was the winner and Hathaway the loser in the Jaycee-Athletic House contest. Nolen of the Jaycees was the big hitter with five for five, two of them home runs. Harrison also hit a homer for the winners. Foster had two for four to lead the losers.

Dowdy was the winning pitcher
for Texaco with Parks the loser.
Woodard, with two for five, had hitting honors. The game was called after six innings of play because of darkness.

The Ronnie-Karnes game was a five-inning affair with Clark the winning pitcher and Hefner the loser. Clark allowed the Karnes team only three hits while his teammates got 11. Clark and Yar-ber had two for four each for the winners while Wiley, Hefner and

Roberts Blanks Pirates Third Time This Season; Cardinals Hammer Reds, 11-3

By FRED DOWN

United Press Sports Writer
Robin Roberts' mastery over the Pittsburgh Pirates today enabled
the Philadelphia Phillies' hard-throwing ace to threaten Grover
Cleveland Alexander's 37-year-old record of shutout successes against one team.

Roberts, who has a lifetime record of 25-5 against the Pirates, shut them out for the third time
in as many tries this season as he hurled the Phillies to an 8-0 victory Wednesday night. It was back in 1916 that Alexander shut out the Cincinnati Reds five times to set the record for shutouts against one team in a single season.

Roberts has had a shaky season
but has never looked tougher to the pitiful Pirates, who have a team batting average of .177
against him. Wednesday night's victory was Robin's fourth straight, his 11th of the campaign and the 125th of his career.

Phillies Win 5th Straight
With Roberts spinning a "routine" six-hitter, the Phillies breezed to their fifth straight victory and eighth in nine games, enabling them to open up a 3 1/2 game lead
over the fourth-place Milwaukee Braves, who suffered a 9-7 loss to
the Chicago Cubs. The New York
Giants beat the Brooklyn Dodgers,
5-2, and the St. Louis Cardinals routed the Reds, 11-3, in the other National League games.

The Cleveland Indians, meanwhile, restored their American League lead to three full games over Mike Garcia tossed a four-hitter to beat the Baltimore Orioles
2-0, after both the Chicago White Sox and New York Yankees lost afternoon games. Bill Tuttle's ninth inning homer beat the White Sox,
4-3, for the Detroit Tigers while the Boston Red Sox downed the Yankees, 6-1.

Garcia scored his fourth shutout
and 10th triumph of the season.
Larry Doby homered.
Cubs Snap Losing Streak
The Cubs, snapped an 11-game losing streak although they had to fight off a five-run uprising by the Braves in the ninth inning. The Cubs kayeed Lew Burdette in a three-run seventh inning. Bob Rush received credit for his fifth win.

First baseman Joe Cunningham, rust up from Rochester, drove in five runs with a three-run homer
and a single to spark the Cardinals' 14-hit attack on four Cincinnati pitchers. Rookie Brooks Lawrence won his second big league victory.

Southpaw Billy Hoelt, who took over in the eighth inning, gained credit for the Tigers' victory. Morris Martin suffered his seventh loss.

Willard Nixon beat the Yankees
for the third time with a steady
six-hitter that was marred only by

shire sent to the continental army
at the start of the Revolutionary war

generals received $66.

ers to hit safely.

Sunday school had good attendance Sunday. It seems to be growing.

Everybody is invited to come to church Sunday for the Saline county singing convention and "dinner on the grounds." There will be preaching in the morning and singing in the afternoon.

The farmers are cutting and combining wheat and oats these days.

Those who called at the K. Church home recently were Mrs. Laverne Hathaway, Mrs. Mary Lee Adams, Mrs. Pearl Haney and children and Rev. and Mrs. Godbey from Centralia. Rev. and Mrs. Godbey attended the funeral of James Blackman which was Friday at Sulphur Springs. Rev. Joe Morman, pastor of the First Baptist church in Harrisburg, delivered the funeral sermon.

Mrs. Certain's relatives from Harrisburg visited with her recently.

Mrs. Mary Harper has been a guest of home folks recently.

Navy Pays Bill After 76 Years

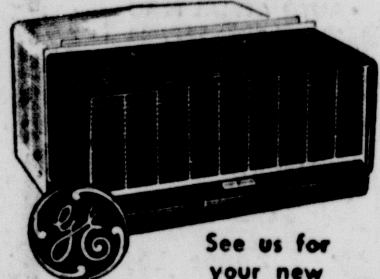

CLEVELAND, O.—The Navy finally came through—after three acts of Congress and 76 years.

The Navy's Bureau of Supplies and Accounts has revealed that it has cleared its books of a debt owed to the late John McCray, who did some gardening work at the Pensacola, Fla. Navy Yard between 1878 and 1882.

Details become vague in the intervening years, but McCray did not receive his money, though acts of Congress provided for its first in 1907 and again in 1935.

Finally, his great-granddaughter, Mrs. Priscilla Suarez Harris of Pensacola, with the help of lawyers, presented the bill for McCray's labor again. Another act of Congress was passed last year and now the Navy has paid the $290.14.

Ellis to Locate Truck Terminal Here; Boost to City Economy

Action is Result of 2-Month Negotiations By the Jaycees

Most pleasant economic news in years for Harrisburg was announced today by the Harrisburg Junior Chamber of Commerce. The Jaycees revealed that contracts had been signed whereby the Ellis Trucking Co. will place its terminal for its Indianapolis-to-Memphis run in Harrisburg. This means that Ellis will be putting an annual payroll estimated at from $300,000 to $350,000 into the Harrisburg area. Most of 76 employees on the run will move into the area with the terminal expected to get in operation here in August.

The terminal will be built on Route 45 across the highway from the Harrisburg Motor Hotel and will be constructed by the Midland Construction Co., owned by J. Cecil Sullivan and F. M. "Pat" Sullivan, who yesterday signed the contracts for the terminal here with Claude C. Caylor, general manager of the Ellis Trucking Co., Inc.

Option to Purchase Site
The signing of the contract came after from six weeks to two months of negotiating between the Jaycees and Ellis representatives. When it was learned that the Ellis company planned to abandon its present terminal at Marion, Ky., and move it into southern Illinois, the Harrisburg Junior Chamber of Commerce got busy.

It was necessary to meet stiff competition from other communities bidding for the terminal and in order to do so the Jaycees obligated their organization for $8,000, to be applied by Ellis against the purchase price of the building and property if it chooses to exercise an option it has to buy at the end of three years. The Jaycees, in return, have a separate contract with the Sullivans to purchase the site should Ellis decide not to do so.

Impressed With City
A Jaycee announcement along with the revelation that the terminal was coming here revealed that because of the $5,000 obligation the organization needs more money and asked all business and professional men who have not contributed to mail or give their checks to the treasurer, who is Robert S. Davenport.

Davenport today said that Caylor, in his negotiations here, appeared to be very much interested in the welfare of his employees, and was greatly impressed with the schools, the church-building program and the television station in this city. He said he was an active member of the Chamber of Commerce at Danville, Ind., and had told the group there that it should

NEW YORK (AP)—Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt announced today that she has "indefinitely cancelled" her proposed trip to Russia because Soviet officials refused to grant a visa to a Look Magazine writer who was to accompany her. Mrs. Roosevelt said she felt that Soviet officials were "trying to force me to go to Russia on their terms."

She said she and Look's editors were convinced that the Russians "would insist on everything being on their terms after I got there" and that it would be "very foolish" for her to make the trip on that basis.

Mrs. Roosevelt had been scheduled to leave New York by plane today and to stay in Russia until July 30, gathering material for a series of articles for the magazine.

The trip was cancelled after Russia refused to grant visas to either William Attwood or Whitman Haslow, Look writers. The magazine had submitted both names to Soviet officials, but only one would have made the trip.

Gov't Economists Predict Fair Weather Economy Rest of Year

WASHINGTON (AP)—Government economists forecast fair economic weather today as the nation swings into the second half of 1954. They agreed in separate interviews that economic trends at mid-year remain mixed and that no new boom is brewing. But they also agreed there are no signs pointing to a further over-all decline in the economy.

One of them called the current situation "darn good prosperity." Another said there are "no real

Housewife Gets 4-Year Probation In Embezzlement

OMAHA, Neb.—A 22-year-old North Platte, Neb., housewife, and mother of two small children, pleaded "no contest" to three charges of embezzling $22,000 from the First National Bank of North Platte and drew a sentence of four years probation Wednesday.

Mrs. Mary Alice Gerhardt was charged by the government with taking the money while employed at the bank as a bookkeeper from September, 1950, to January, 1953. U. S. District Court Judge John DeLoach said Mrs. Gerhardt's small children were a major factor in granting the probation.

George B. Dent Jr., her attorney, requested the probation. He said Mrs. Gerhardt apparently got the idea for the embezzlement from an FBI agent whom she had heard explain possible methods of fraud at a meeting of bank employees at one time.

The defendant's mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Thompson, of near North Platte had made partial restitution of the theft by mortgaging their farm.

Dent said Mrs. Gerhardt used the money to buy "nice things" such as a $15,000 home, an automobile and items for her husband, a bakery truck driver.

Dent said Gerhardt who makes $50 per week, and Mrs. Gerhardt's parents, "never knew where the money was coming from." He said Mrs. Gerhardt told her husband she got it from the Wolf brothers ranch, the account she embezzled, because she was a relative of the owners. She told her parents her husband inherited the money, Dent said.

To Resurface Granger Street Blacktop, And Part of Sloan

The city of Harrisburg today advertised for bids to resurface the blacktop on South Granger street from Poplar to Robinson and West Sloan street from Granger to Land. The project calls for a thin layer of bituminous surfacing material over the original blacktop, which was put on the streets in 1929.

The project will be financed with motor fuel tax funds. The letting of the contract will be July 15.

strong factors to push us up, unless defense spending rises, but also nothing big is going to push us down."

The dip in the nation's economy which started last summer and made itself felt in the key areas of production, employment and personal income began leveling off during the first six months of the year.

Picture Seen Improving
And for the past two months, the interviewed economists feel, the picture has been improving steadily. They point to such favorable trends as rising employment and less unemployment, steady spending by consumers, business and state and local governments, and a steady flow of income which people can spend.

Generally, the economists feel that the employment situation is now critical only in certain localities such as steel and auto centers. Lagging auto sales is the reason for this.

Total employment has climbed in each of the four latest months for which figures are available to a May total of 61,119,000 while the nation's jobless declined in April and May to 3,305,000. Employment set a new record last August when working Americans numbered 63,408,000. The postwar jobless low was last October's 1,162,000.

And the economists think things will get still better on the employment front. Signs that point that way are the continuing construction boom, normal summertime farm activity and the recent upturn in industrial production after a 10 per cent decline from last July's peak. Several hundred thousand temporarily unemployed students have entered the job market, but the economists think there are enough permanent jobs for all graduates.

Economists believe one reason for the business slump has been the reduction in inventories—stocks on the shelves of manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers. Inventories have shrunk $2,500,000,000 since last September when a record $82,000,000,000 was piled up.

But because the inventory reduction has not been matched by a sales slump, the government economists view it as a healthy readjustment.

Safety Council Reports Decline in May Traffic Deaths

CHICAGO (AP)—The National Safety Council reported on the eve of the Fourth of July holiday weekend that traffic deaths declined again in May.

The council said May was the fifth consecutive month of 1954 to show a reduction from the corresponding month of the previous year. It was the first time since 1947 that deaths decreased for each of the first five months of the year.

Traffic accidents took 2,960 lives in May, a reduction of 3 per cent. The total for the first five months was 13,470, down 5 per cent.

But Ned H. Dearborn, council president, warned drivers to be careful during the approaching holiday. "It isn't encouraging to think that 430 lives may be snuffed out in auto accidents in one holiday weekend," he said.

Stratton to Return From Vacation Today

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—Gov. William G. Stratton was expected to return to Illinois today after a 10-day Colorado vacation.

The governor's office said Stratton and his family were due to arrive by train late today.

Gov. John W. Chapman has been acting governor since Stratton left June 22.

CWA Workers Strike Against Western Electric

WASHINGTON (AP)—The CIO Communications Workers of America called a strike today against Western Electric Co., in a move that could paralyze telephone service across the country.

A union spokesman said some of the 10,000 members walked off the job at 6 a. m. local time, the strike deadline, and others would be joining them throughout the day, depending on local situations.

Picketing of telephone exchanges which use Western Electric equipment did not begin immediately. A. T. Jones, union vice president and national strike director, declined to discuss picketing plans.

The strike was by CWA workers who install telephone equipment produced by Western Electric at exchanges in 43 states and the District of Columbia, Maine, Vermont, New Hampshire, Massachusetts and Rhode Island were not affected since the New England Bell Telephone Co. does its own installing.

Since most exchange workers also belong to the CWA, telephone service over the entire country would be affected if the installation workers set up picket lines and the exchange workers refuse to cross them.

Since most major cities in the country now have dial system telephones, long distance service would be hardest hit by the walkout.

Local telephone service will not be affected because employees of this exchange belong to another union, Manager Millard H. Lynch stated today. Long distance phone service to some cities might be affected by the strike, he added.

Three Local Girls Pledged to Sororities at University of Illinois

Three local girls have been pledged to membership in sororities at the University of Illinois, it was announced today by the office of the dean of women.

Miss Betty Butler, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Butler, has been named to Alpha Chi Omega; Miss Ann Funkhouser, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. B. G. Funkhouser, has been named to Chi Omega; and Miss Mary Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Shannon Taylor, has been named to Zeta Tau Alpha.

Sorority rushing is held each June that new members may automatically move into their new sorority homes when they go to the campus in September.

Charges Involve Shakedowns on Various Projects

EAST ST. LOUIS (AP)—U. S. Atty. Clifford M. Roemer announced today that Evan Dale, boss of the AFL Laborers' Union in Southern Illinois, has been named in an indictment listing 30 counts of labor racketeering.

Roemer said the charges against Dale involved shakedowns on a large number of contractors and construction projects.

Dale was charged specifically with burdening interstate commerce by extorting $67,000 from 16 contractors on Southern Illinois jobs.

He said Dale, previously charged in indictments with evasion of income taxes and labor racketeering, was expected to surrender on the new indictment shortly.

The grand jury voted three indictments naming five persons Wednesday night but, except for Dale, the names of the defendants were withheld pending their arrests.

The grand jury began its inquiry into charges of widespread labor racketeering in the Eastern District of Illinois last February and previously returned nine indictments naming eight persons.

Roemer said FBI and Internal Revenue Service agents are continuing the inquiry and more indictments are expected.

After returning the indictment, the grand jury recessed, subject to recall.

The 88-page indictment, the fifth to be returned against Dale, listed the charges against him as follows:

Trinidad Asphalt Manufacturing Co., St. Louis, allegedly paid $1,000 in July, 1951, while paving a section of U. S. 45 near Norris City.

Luh Bros. Construction Co., Inc., Columbia, paid $1,250 to Dale while working on a levee project for the Army Corps of Engineers at Grand Tower in July, 1952.

Tri-State Engineering Co., Benton, paid $500 on three highway construction jobs near Mounds in November, 1952.

E. T. Simons Construction Co., Carbondale, paid $1,230 on two highway jobs in Massac County and at Hamilton in 1952.

Mitchell Contracting Co., Herrin, paid $2,700 on two highway jobs in Alexander and Union counties in July, 1951.

Edgar Stephens & Sons Inc., Cairo, paid $2,912 on construction of track for C & E railroad into Joppa power plant in August, 1952.

C. J. Moritz Co. Inc., Effingham, paid $4,900 on a Jefferson County highway job in October, 1952.

William Lough & Sons Construction Co. paid $950 on highway job in Williamson county in September, 1952.

R. W. Ford Construction Co. paid $250 on highway construction in Franklin and Williamson counties in December, 1951.

Arrow Petroleum Co., Chicago, paid $10,810 on four highway paving jobs in Franklin, Hamilton, Perry, Jefferson and Marion counties in 1951, 1952 and 1953.

Bituminous Fuel & Oil Co., East St. Louis, paid $2,555 on job at Cairo Municipal Airport and building road into Joppa power plant in 1952.

Charles G. Gilmore Asphalt Products Co., Carbondale, paid $11,500 on seven highway paving jobs in Williamson, Franklin, Union, Pulaski, Johnson, Jackson, Perry and Massac counties in 1952.

Dulles Promises Support to Any Anti-Communist Gov't in Guatemala, Latin America

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States plans quick action to bolster any anti-Communist government in Guatemala, American officials said today.

The idea is to demonstrate that Guatemala's action in throwing out the Communists will pay off in the Western Hemisphere.

French Abandon Most of Red River Delta Area

HANOI, Indochina (AP)—The French High Command today announced the abandonment of the entire southern sector of the rich Red River delta because Communist infiltration had made its defense impossible.

The French said 15,000 French troops had been withdrawn from the rice-rich plains and the thriving towns between the Red and Day rivers, because the area was so "totted" by infiltrating Reds that it could not resist a major Communist attack.

The mass evacuation of French forces, described by a military spokesman as "extremely grave but absolutely necessary," turned over to Communist control the two million Vietnamese of the region.

Major Red Victory
It was a major Red victory in which scarcely a single shot was fired.

The French High Command said troops will be concentrated along the supply lines connecting Hanoi and Haiphong, the Gulf of Tonkin port of entry for American munitions.

According to the High Command, France had no choice in giving up the southern half of the delta. The area is populated mostly by rice farmers. Many strongly anti-Communist Roman Catholic priests reside in the abandoned section.

Military sources said the southern sector was honeycombed with Communist troops and the non-Catholic population was almost solidly for the rebels.

The evacuation of the sector indicated the High Command now plans to keep its foothold in north Indochina by defending Hanoi, a corridor surrounding the road and railroad to Haiphong and the Tonkin Gulf port itself.

It was the biggest pullback by the French since the war started almost eight years ago and the French expected it to have devastating effects on free world opinion.

At one swoop the bitterly anti-Communist bishops of Bui Chu and Phat Diem were submerged and lost. Given up, too, were Thet Binh and the textile-producing province of Nam Dinh.

The withdrawal started at dawn Tuesday under heavy air cover. Communist troops immediately moved into Phat Diem.

Rep. Roosevelt Says New York Favours Higher Program

By United Press
Republican leaders said today it looks as though President Eisenhower's farm program is dead for this year, killed apparently by big city Democrats.

The administration wants to abandon the present rigid high farm price support program in favor of flexible supports which almost certainly would be lower.

In a late attempt at compromise, administration forces with President Eisenhower's approval offered a proposal to put a floor of 82 1/2 per cent of parity under price supports next year. Supports on basic crops are fixed at 90 per cent now.

But Rep. Franklin D. Roosevelt (D-N. Y.) announced formally that most New York Democrats favor keeping the high support program another year.

Other late news:
Rules: The Senate Republican Policy Committee proposed new rules to protect the rights of witnesses before investigating committees and to curb the power of the committee chairman. One of the main proposals was that no investigation could be started unless authorized by the Senate or by the full committee having jurisdiction. The policy committee drafted the proposed rules after receiving complaints about the tactics of Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy.

High Life: The Senate Banking Committee heard stories today about girls parties and gambling losses involving former officials of the scandal-ridden FIA. Andrew Frost, fired last week as assistant state FIA manager in New Mexico, refused under the Fifth Amendment to reply when asked if he attended a party for which girls were supplied by contractors doing business with the FIA. Burton C. Boward, suspended FIA general counsel, conceded he had heard reports that Clyde L. Powell, ousted assistant FIA commissioner, lost large sums gambling.

Pensions: Sponsors predicted early House approval of legislation to deny federal benefits to Alger Hiss or any government employee, serviceman or veteran who pleads the Fifth Amendment. The bill, an outgrowth of moves to deny Hiss a pension, also would prohibit such payments to anyone convicted of perjury, espionage, treason or any other felony.

Atomic: Chairman W. Sterling Cole (R-N.Y.) of the House-Senate Atomic Energy Committee forecast early House approval of a new law geared to the peaceful use of the atom. But some Democrats warned that the measure, approved 18 to 0 Wednesday, faces a fight on a side issue involving the Tennessee Valley Authority and the purchase of power from private companies by the Atomic Energy Commission.

Senate Nears Passage of Tax Reform Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate pushed the administration's giant tax reform bill toward passage today by taking another tack in the proposed tax relief for income from stock dividends.

A Democratic move was expected later today to kill the dividend income provision completely. It was given little chance of success.

Senate leaders hoped to get a final vote on the entire bill by tonight but a heavy backlog of proposed amendments left doubt that they could finish before Friday.

By voice vote, the Senate finished the job of trimming the dividend tax relief under a formula proposed Wednesday by Sen. Eugene D. Millikin (R-Colo.), manager of the bill.

Halves Dividend Benefit
As part of the defeated GOP move to lower personal income taxes, Millikin cut in half the dividend benefit approved by the House.

The House provision would exclude $50 received from dividends from taxable income for the first year of the new tax law and $100 thereafter. It also would permit stockholders to deduct 5 per cent of their dividend income from their tax bill in the first year and 10 per cent thereafter.

Millikin's proposal called for holding these figures at $50 and 5 per cent permanently. The 5 per cent part of his plan was adopted but he failed to submit the other part until today.

The differences between the House and Senate bills still will be subject to negotiation by a House-Senate conference committee.

Would Kill Reforms
Sen. A. Willis Robertson (D-Va.) introduced an amendment today to kill all of the tax reforms in the bill. His amendment, which he later withdrew, would have left nothing in the bill except the provision to renew the 52 per cent tax rate on corporate income for one year through next March 31.

Sen. Wayne L. Morse (Ind.-Ore.) served notice that he would offer the Robertson amendment later and demand a vote.

Rival Republican and Democratic plans for cutting income taxes were defeated on nearly straight party-line votes late Tuesday. But senators on both sides indicated they were satisfied since, when election time comes, nearly all of them will be able to say they voted in favor of tax cuts for everybody.

And the Eisenhower administration was delighted at the voting because it has been fighting tooth and nail against income tax cuts that would play havoc with its budget.

Unable to Get House Votes for Lower Supports

Rep. Roosevelt Says New York Favours Higher Program

By United Press
Republican leaders said today it looks as though President Eisenhower's farm program is dead for this year, killed apparently by big city Democrats.

The administration wants to abandon the present rigid high farm price support program in favor of flexible supports which almost certainly would be lower.

In a late attempt at compromise, administration forces with President Eisenhower's approval offered a proposal to put a floor of 82 1/2 per cent of parity under price supports next year. Supports on basic crops are fixed at 90 per cent now.

But Rep. Franklin D. Roosevelt (D-N. Y.) announced formally that most New York Democrats favor keeping the high support program another year.

Other late news:
Rules: The Senate Republican Policy Committee proposed new rules to protect the rights of witnesses before investigating committees and to curb the power of the committee chairman. One of the main proposals was that no investigation could be started unless authorized by the Senate or by the full committee having jurisdiction. The policy committee drafted the proposed rules after receiving complaints about the tactics of Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy.

High Life: The Senate Banking Committee heard stories today about girls parties and gambling losses involving former officials of the scandal-ridden FIA. Andrew Frost, fired last week as assistant state FIA manager in New Mexico, refused under the Fifth Amendment to reply when asked if he attended a party for which girls were supplied by contractors doing business with the FIA. Burton C. Boward, suspended FIA general counsel, conceded he had heard reports that Clyde L. Powell, ousted assistant FIA commissioner, lost large sums gambling.

Pensions: Sponsors predicted early House approval of legislation to deny federal benefits to Alger Hiss or any government employee, serviceman or veteran who pleads the Fifth Amendment. The bill, an outgrowth of moves to deny Hiss a pension, also would prohibit such payments to anyone convicted of perjury, espionage, treason or any other felony.

Atomic: Chairman W. Sterling Cole (R-N.Y.) of the House-Senate Atomic Energy Committee forecast early House approval of a new law geared to the peaceful use of the atom. But some Democrats warned that the measure, approved 18 to 0 Wednesday, faces a fight on a side issue involving the Tennessee Valley Authority and the purchase of power from private companies by the Atomic Energy Commission.

Senator Butler Suffers Stroke

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Hugh Butler (R-Neb.) was rushed to the Naval Medical Center at Bethesda, Md., early today in a critical condition after suffering a stroke at his home.

Butler apparently suffered the stroke in his sleep. He was found unconscious this morning and was taken to the hospital.

Several hours after he entered the hospital, Butler's aides reported he was still unconscious.

Butler is serving his third term in the Senate. He was elected in 1940, and re-elected in 1946 and 1952.

Nebraska lost one senator this year—Dwight D. Griswold who died April 26. Mrs. Eva Bowring, wealthy ranch owner, was appointed to succeed him and was sworn in April 26.

NOSEGAY FOR H. S. T. (Chicago Tribune)

Merely because he is very sick man, we shall not pretend for a moment that Harry Truman is either a great statesman or a noble character. The phrases that we applied to him in other years were warm, but the provocation was great and the condemnation was no more severe than the facts warranted.

Nevertheless, in all sincerity, we express the wish that Mr. Truman will make a speedy recovery and that he will remain with us long. There are a lot of things wrong with Harry Truman but there are ways more candid, less hypocrisy, and more natural man in his words and behavior than most politicians would dare display.

PRICE PROPPERS

The Senate Agriculture Committee surprised its chairman, the venerable Sen. George Aiken of Vermont, by voting 8 to 7 to continue high, rigid farm price supports for another year. So now the burden of supporting President Eisenhower's plan for lower, more flexible supports must be borne by senators on the floor.

Aiken seems to be confident the program may still win out, but he also was reasonably sure his committee would back the President.

The House Agriculture Committee earlier voted by a wider margin to scuttle Mr. Eisenhower's plan, and it is considered extremely doubtful that the full House will stand with him. It was the Senate that was counted on to drive along the flexible program, and the committee's action has now put this in question.

Possibly members of both houses are "making a record" for the farm vote, expecting a presidential veto to accomplish Mr. Eisenhower's aim but get them off the hook. If this is their thought, one might say it is practical, but hardly likely to stir admiration as evidence of either courage or statesmanship.

Tips on Traffic Safety

By CHARLES F. CARPENTIER Secretary of State

Summer thunder showers or electrical storms can come up quite suddenly, and you may find yourself caught in one out on the highway, especially if you are on a long weekend drive or a vacation trip.

If you are caught in these circumstances, stay in your car. Don't leave it to stand in the shelter of a tree, a signboard or some other object. Your car, particularly if it is of all steel construction, is the safest place in an electrical storm.

The rubber tires provide insulation, and the only precaution you need to take is to avoid touching anything metal on the inside of the car. It may take some extra self-control to stay in the car with thunder and lightning coming to crash all around you, but it is your best bet.

A copy of the completely new "Rules of the Road" booklet will be sent to you free upon request. Write to CHARLES F. CARPENTIER, Secretary of State, Springfield, Illinois.

For Your Boy in Korea: 'Operation Opportunity'

By SUMNER AHLBUM NEA Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK —(NEA)— If your boy is a soldier in Korea—or if he faces the prospect of duty over there—don't feel sorry for him.

Although Korea is not exactly a picnic, even in peace, it is also the land of opportunity under the Army's new program to wipe out the boredom that often goes with peacetime duty overseas.

Under "operation opportunity," your boy is more than likely to come home far better equipped for his civilian future than he was when he left.

"We accept the responsibility for turning out better citizens," says Maj. Gen. Charles W. Christenberry, who is now voluntarily retiring from active service after supervising current morale special services plans for off-duty opportunities for the uniformed personnel of the Far East—and prior to that for the entire Army.

"And," he adds, "the nation has a right to expect us to turn back the young men better than we got them."

General Christenberry, a wartime veteran of the Mediterranean Theater, was Chief of the Special Services Division of the Army before he went to Korea in 1952 as Eighth Army Deputy Chief of Staff. A year later he became assistant chief of staff for personnel, Far East and UN Commands.

In those posts, he was able to watch at first-hand the development of "operation opportunity," the project closest to his heart. He will continue to watch it in his new role as chief executive officer of the American-Korean Foundation under his former Eighth Army boss, Gen. James A. Van Fleet, chairman of the Foundation.

In Korea today—and in Japan and Okinawa—hundreds of American boys are getting their high school diplomas. Scores are building up credits toward university degrees. Others are taking courses, not for credit but as preparation for some particular aim in life.

These are not catch-as-catch-can courses conducted by officers as extra-curricular duty, but organized education. Many of the instructors are from the faculty of the University of California, attached to the Far East forces as civilians. Scores of officers and enlisted men help out as part-time instructors.

With 45 per cent of its soldiers under voting age, the off-duty training program also concentrates on developing better reading and study habits for the men, on keeping them abreast of current affairs, on developing teamwork in sports, on showing them why they are in Korea and how their job fits into the Indochina picture and the rest of the Far East.

Attends Convention Of Music Sorority

Miss Marlene Rann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Rann, Carrier Mills, attended the national convention of Mu Phi Epsilon, professional music sorority, held this past week in Salt Lake City, Utah. She was a business delegate from Epsilon Kappa chapter of Mu Phi Epsilon from Southern Illinois university in Carbondale.

The national president presented Epsilon Kappa chapter, of which Miss Rann is past president, with the special service award which was a check for 25 dollars. This was given to the S.I.U. chapter above 75 other chapters.

Highlights of the convention were conducted tours to the Great Salt Lake, Bingham copper mine and Temple Square. There was also a tea and reception at the governor's mansion on Thursday afternoon.

The 1958 national convention will be held in Rochester, N. Y.

Gold, copper, tin, platinum, hard and soft coal, marble gypsum and limestone, all are mineral resources to be found in Alaska

explains Christenberry, "is to integrate the uniformed man and woman into the community life they'll share later. We are also trying to show the people back home what their boys are doing—and why."

Christenberry, who is known to countless soldiers as "General Chris," is a tall, scholarly-looking man with a voice that is rich in both friendliness and the zeal of a missionary.

That zeal extends to the people of Korea as well as to the American boys helping them defend their peace.

"I know the Korean people and their potentials," says the general, who has sat in on that country's civilian and civil affairs. "They are worth saving. They are rich with ancient culture and take naturally to Christianity. It won't happen tomorrow, but in the long range view, the Republic of Korea is strong in the potential of becoming a democratic nation."

Apparently some of this zeal for Korea has rubbed off on the American soldiers there in the course of "operation opportunity."

For in addition to voluntary studies, sports, fishing, hunting, and other assorted off-duty activities, many of the soldiers have pitched in to help the Koreans rebuild their war-shattered resources. GIs have helped build new homes, schools and churches with skills they learned in the Army and will undoubtedly put to use in their civilian future. They have helped in the restoration of Chosen and two Universities. Boys from farms have learned how to clean out rice paddies, bogged down by the rip-tides of battle.

The official off-duty training program of voluntary activities is being continuously worked over with America's top educators and recreational experts. Christenberry is frank to admit it is "not entirely successful, but is becoming increasingly so."

Such a program "requires patience," he adds, "because we're working with a lot of young men, many of whom have never had such opportunities before. Some

One handicap to morale, he points out, is letters from home in which parents, without intending to, encourage homesickness and griping by feeling sorry for the fact their boys have to be in the Far East.

"Instead," he urges, "they should be encouraging their boys to take advantage of the opportunities they're offered. Korea is no picnic, but it's no worse, either, than a boy helping earn his way through college."

On retirement from active service, General Christenberry was awarded an oak leaf cluster to the Distinguished Service Medal for his work in the Far East Command.

But he is not retiring from Korea. He is going to continue to work in the interests of the people in whose future he has strong faith. Like "operation opportunity" for the men in service, the American-Korean Foundation's aim is to "help the Koreans to help themselves."

Ike and Mamie Celebrate 38th Anniversary

WASHINGTON —AP— President Eisenhower and his "Mamie" celebrated their 38th wedding anniversary Wednesday night at a festive White House party featuring a group sing of old-time favorites.

The nation's first couple were married 38 years ago today in Denver, Colo. at the home of Mrs. Eisenhower's parents.

A quiet celebration was planned this afternoon when members of the White House staff expected to offer their congratulations at a function in the family apartment on the executive mansion's second floor.

The President and Mrs. Eisenhower usually exchange gifts on their wedding anniversary but the White House had no comment on that.

The nation's first couple invited 55 guests—the chief executive's West Point classmates, their wives and widows—to the anniversary eve celebration.

After dinner the party moved in to the East Room where an Air Force violinist struck up the "Anniversary Waltz" and the two wedding marches.

Then, as the guests called out

imitate the activities of the organization here.

J. Cecil Sullivan today said that he expected to have the building constructed by Aug. 15 and that the terminal will be set up here by that time. There will be 12 employees at the terminal. The trucking line has 64 drivers on the Indianapolis-to-Memphis run and Harrisburg will be the home location for the drivers. Nearly all will move here, Caylor stated.

Five Year Lease

The contract signed yesterday calls for 4.36 acres of ground, less a strip 150 by 300 feet which the Sullivan plan to improve. It calls for a five-year lease, with Ellis paying rent at the rate of $250 per month for three years, then 50 per cent of the rental paid shall be applied on the purchase of the property if Ellis chooses to exercise an option to buy at the end of the three-year period.

If Ellis doesn't choose to buy, the lease continues for the full five years, with the lease to be renegotiated. In event Ellis fails to purchase, the Jaycees in their separate agreement have the opportunity to purchase the site under the same terms given Ellis, and Ellis or others then would deal with the organization if purchased from the Sullivans.

The Sullivans will construct a masonry building with 2,600 feet of floor space, with concrete floor, containing garage, office, two rest rooms, parts room, and equipped with modern heating and plumbing systems. There will be elevator, beam or bar joist roof construction and there will be three large overhead doors 13 feet, six inches high and 12 feet wide.

The great portion of the land included in the contract will be for truck parking and this will be cindered and chatted. There will be a 150 foot frontage and the land extends back 301 feet, changing from 150 to 300 feet wide for the back 600 feet.

Sullivan said the building, ground, grading, filling and surfacing is a $24,000 deal which is bringing to Harrisburg "the biggest thing that has happened here in years."

The Ellis company has terminals in Bay City, Flint, Pontiac, Lansing, Jackson, Saginaw, Detroit, Mich., Fort Wayne, Anderson and Indianapolis, Ind., Memphis, Tenn., and the Marion, Ky., terminal which is moving here.

This is the second business brought to Harrisburg by the Jaycees to boost the local payroll. About two years ago they were successful in getting a cap factory to set up on the third floor of the Cummins building. It now employs 100 women.

Legislation Wiping Out Township School Trustees, Treasurers in Effect

SPRINGFIELD — Laws wiping out offices of school township trustees and treasurers in 100 Illinois counties became effective today.

The legislation, approved by the 1953 General Assembly, applied to all counties except Cook, Madison and St. Clair.

The laws also abolished the permanent fund of the township if its average income for three years wasn't $2,500. If it was more than that, township land commissioners are set up to manage the funds.

Sponsors of the legislation said that under the present school system, township trustees and treasurers had little or no duties.

Rep. Charles W. Cavanaugh (R-Champaign), the leading sponsor, said that in 509 townships the offices were "either vacant or inactive."

Cavanaugh showed figures listing 1,776 treasurers in Illinois in the 1951-52 school year. He said the treasurers' expenses were $666,105 more than the income of their offices.

Another law which wipes out most of the non-high school territory in the state also took effect today. It, too, was passed in 1953.

All non-high territory except that adjacent to charter or unit district was eliminated last July 1.

All non-high territory with less than 40 pupils and which is adjacent to a unit district was abolished as of today.

Other non-high areas will be wiped out by July 1, 1956.

Report Nashville Man Forced to Drive Away with Gunmen

OKAWVILLE, Ill. — State police spread an alarm today for two or three men who are reported to have forced Elmer Hake, 66, of Nashville, to drive away with them at gunpoint from Okawville late Wednesday.

Hake has been missing 18 hours. Police said Walter Streuter reported he saw Hake stop his car at an intersection and another car carrying two or three men pull up behind it about 4 p. m.

Streuter said a man got out of the second car, believed to be a black 1953 Chevrolet, and entered Hake's 1953 blue Plymouth. The youth said the man appeared to force Hake from the driver's seat and then both cars headed south.

State Police Lt. Elza Brantley at Du Quoin said an alarm was broadcast for the men for "forcing Hake to drive away with them at gunpoint or an armed robbery."

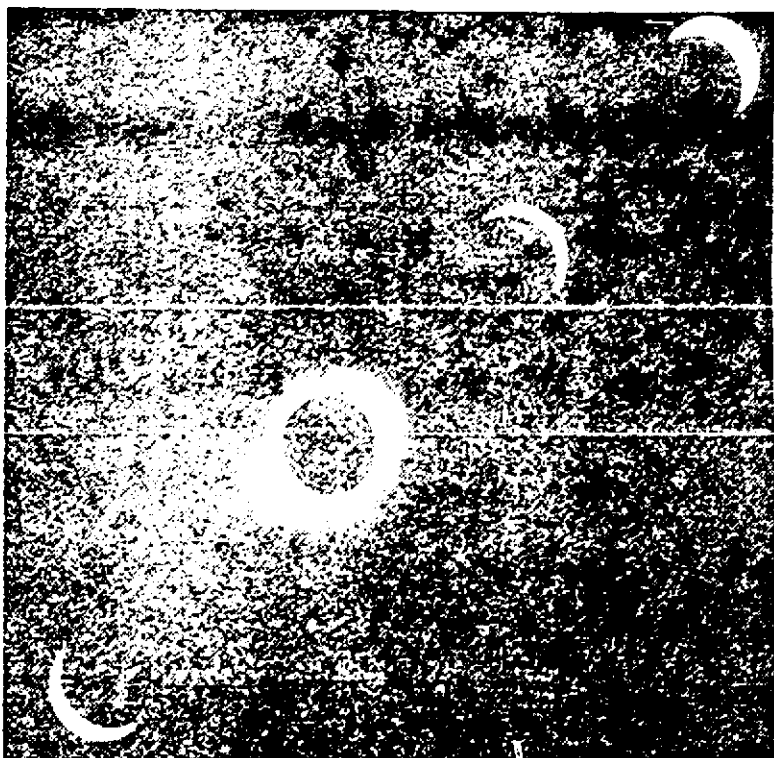

Hake's family became alarmed and notified authorities when he failed to return from his job at the State Highway Department office in St. Clair County to which he commuted daily.

Hake is 5 feet 11 inches tall and weighs about 200 pounds. He wears glasses, and was wearing gray slacks and sport shirt Wednesday.

Long Bridges

Florida's Overseas Highway to Key West ranks as one of the longest occurring roads in the world. One link, the Long Bridge, jumps seven miles of open water. The Thousand Islands International Bridge between New York State and Ontario, extending from island to island for eight and a half miles, the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge extends eight miles, including a tunnel in the middle through an island. A railroad bridge over Lake Pontchartrain in Louisiana is seven miles long, with a nearby highway bridge of five miles. Gandy Bridge near Tampa, Florida, which like the Chesapeake Bay Bridge is part causeway, totals six miles.

The meeting was held at the Emerson hotel and dates for the district and regional meetings were scheduled. The regional fall convention will be held at Florin, Wednesday, Sept. 29, and the spring convention of the 24th district will be held Wednesday, April 27, 1955, at Metropolis. The first board meeting in the 24th district will be held Sept. 21, at Equality at the Methodist church, Mrs. Millburn said.

Birthday Dinner For Mrs. Nuan Givens

Mrs. Nuan Givens, whose birthday was Wednesday, was honored with a birthday dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Weir at the Weir home near Dering mine, Elmerado RFD 2. Gladys centered the table, and homemade ice cream was served with the lovely birthday cake after dinner. Mr. Givens, and Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Weir were among those present.

Mrs. W. R. Hobbs and her daughter, Mrs. Archie Ledbetter, have just as guests her cousin, Mrs. Nellie Leonard, who left Wednesday to return to Chicago, and the son and daughter-in-law of Mrs. Hobbs, Mr. and Mrs. Hones Swan, Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Archie Ledbetter now occupy their home at Rt. 13 west of Harrisburg, which Mr. Ledbetter, a railroad engineer, constructed on a one and one half acre tract, near the home of Dr. and Mrs. B. G. Funkhouser.

Mrs. Sophia Alexander of Carmi, formerly of Harrisburg, has just returned from a two weeks' vacation in Louisville, Ky., with her son, Doug Alexander and family and her brother, R. R. Sullivan and family. She reports a good time even if the temperature did go over a hundred. She enjoyed the Sullivan homeboat on the Ohio river along with other amusements.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Gilley left today for Austin, Tex., where they will visit with his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Gilley. Mrs. Alta Porter will assume the duties of Mrs. Gilley, who is society editor at The Daily Register, during her vacation.

Mrs. Madge Daugherty, Raleigh, has gone to Joliet to visit her daughter, Mrs. Jacqueline Wesley. Another daughter, Arlene Daugherty, employed in St. Louis, met her there.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Upton, Poncha, Mich., are in Harrisburg visiting relatives and friends.

Presbyterian Friendship Class Has Couples Annual Picnic

The Friendship class of the First Presbyterian church held its annual couples picnic at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon McGeehe.

Those present were Rex and Mrs. John Emig, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Podorski, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Benson, Mr. and Mrs. James Arensman, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Wiley, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hollingsworth, Mr. and Mrs. John Utter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dorris, Mr. and Mrs. Earl W. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Harold James, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Jarrell II, Mr. and Mrs. John Stump, Mrs. Wayne Dixon and Mrs. Rob Roy Brown.

Guests present were Mr. and Mrs. John Cape and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Wilson Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Coy Brown and daughter, Sharon Lee, returned home Wednesday from Miami Springs, Fla., where they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Homer Vineyard, Mrs. Brown's brother-in-law and sister. They were accompanied to Harrisburg by Mrs. Earl Russell Sr., Gainesville, Fla., who is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Huston, RFD 2.

Mrs. Edith Hatfield and son, Stephen Lee, are visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer McCormack, Mrs. Hatfield and son flew from Dana Point, Calif., and were met in St. Louis, Mo., by the McCormacks.

Mr. and Mrs. Bronzel Waltz have as their guests this week their nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Anderson and children, Dixie and Johnny, of Rockford and Miss DeAnna Rae Maddox.

Mrs. Clara Turner, 319 East Logan, has received word that her son, Guy, who works at Manteno, is seriously ill in the medical hospital.

Lt. Gen. Myers Is Expected to Head Scott Base

WASHINGTON (AP) — Lt. Gen. Charles T. Myers is expected to be named to head the Air Trainee Command at Scott Air Force Base, Ill., informal sources said today.

It also was reported that Lt. Gen. Hubert R. Harmon is in line for designations as superintendent of the new Air Force Academy.

Both nominations would be made by the White House to the Senate. Myers is now chief of the U. S. Northeast Command with headquarters at Fort Belvoir, Air Force Base, Newfoundland. He would replace Lt. Gen. Robert W. Harper, who has just retired.

Harmon has been assistant to Air Secretary Harold E. Talbot and former Secretary Thomas K. Finletter on Air Academy matters. He is 62, and was twice recalled from retirement to promote the academy project. Presumably he would be superintendent for a brief period during the academy's inauguration.

Harmon was a West Point classmate of President Eisenhower.

Churchill Leaves For Home

NEW YORK — Prime Minister Winston Churchill left for home today after conferences with President Eisenhower which the British ambassador to the United States said had increased chances for world peace.

Churchill, who conferred five days with the President in Washington, and spent 20 hours in talks with officials in Canada, declined to see the press prior to sailing on the Queen Elizabeth.

However, British Ambassador Sir Roger Makins, who conferred with both Churchill and British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden aboard ship, said in an interview later that the two countries "are in full agreement as to how we are going to proceed" in the troubled world situation.

Asked whether he believed the Churchill-Eisenhower conferences increased chances of peace, Makins replied, "Yes, I do."

Asked to explain why, he replied: "Because I think the chances of peace always improve when our two countries stand firmly together."

Automatic Turn Signals Mandatory for New Autos Under Illinois Law

SPRINGFIELD — Automatic turn signals became mandatory for new autos sold in Illinois today.

The requirement for signal devices to indicate the intention of the driver to turn right or left was contained in a law passed by the 1953 Legislature, with today's effective date.

KIDNEYS MUST REMOVE EXCESS WASTE

Nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness may be due to slow-down of kidney function. Doctors say good kidney function is very important to good health. When some everyday condition, such as stress and strain, causes this important function to slow down, many folks suffer nagging backache—feel miserable. Minor bladder irritations due to cold or wrong diet may cause getting up nights or frequent passages. Don't neglect your kidneys if these conditions bother you. Try Doan's Pills—a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. It's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief from these discomforts. Get Doan's Pills today. They flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today.

Israel, Jordan Urged to Halt Holy Land Battles

JERUSALEM — U. N. The chief United Nations truce supervisory called directly on the governments of Israel and Jordan today to halt the flaming gun battles that exploded into the hottest Jewish Arab Holy Land crisis in months.

Maj. Gen. Vagn Bennike asked an immediate cease-fire to end the scattered fighting in which 4 persons have been killed and 22 wounded since Wednesday.

Shells crashed and bullets whined through the ancient holy city of Jerusalem Wednesday night and again today in a bitter upsurge of hostilities.

Jordan and Israel each blamed the other for starting the shooting. Each blamed the other for breaching the cease-fire agreement.

Freed on Bond at Marion for Beating Daughter

MARION, Ill. — Joe Pedigo, 39, was free on $3,000 bond today on a charge of aggravated assault for beating his daughter, Patsy, 15, with a belt, mop handle and heavy copper wire Wednesday.

Police Chief Charles Edwards said Pedigo, a 6 foot, 200 pound truck driver, gave no reason for beating his daughter after he found her and an 8-year-old sister in the backyard at 2 a. m. because it was too hot for them to sleep.

The state's attorney's office said Pedigo took Patsy into the house, locked her in a room and beat her with a belt until it broke. Then he used the mop handle and wire to beat the girl, who was described as small for her age, until blood from cuts came through her nightclothes, authorities said.

Pedigo's preliminary hearing was set for July 14.

Former Eddyville Woman Dies

Sen. Knowland Asks Reappraisal Of U. S. Policy

Says Communists Have Won Major Victory in Asia

WASHINGTON, (AP) — Senate Republican Leader William F. Knowland (Calif.) said today the Communists have won a major victory in Asia by the "timely" and "surrender" of French forces in the southern sector of Indochina's Red River delta.

He made the statement in a Senate speech asserting that the time has come for the "agonizing reappraisal" of U. S. foreign policy which Secretary of State John Foster Dulles once mentioned.

Knowland did not spell out what charges he favors in U. S. policy, but he made it clear that he wants this country and its allies to take a much tougher line even at the cost of war to halt Red aggression in Southeast Asia.

"How many more Communist victories must be gained in Asia before the free world recognizes its danger?" he cried.

Knowland told the Senate that he is so strongly opposed to admission of Red China to the United Nations that if it should ever come about he would resign the Senate GOP leadership and crusade for American withdrawal from the U. N.

As we meet here today, our ally France in a thinly disguised surrender is being required to permit 10 million Vietnamese in the Red River delta and northern Viet Nam to pass under Communist control. The net result of the developments will be a Communist victory in Asia of no mean proportions.

Knowland said: "For the moment the free nations of the world seem to be faced with a choice of futility and surrender. As has happened a number of the free nations of the world. This is bound to encourage further Communist adventures in Asia or elsewhere."

Knowland asked if any responsible statesman could believe that it would be easier to deal with the Communists after they have increased their stockpile of atomic bombs and their ability to deliver them in the next five years.

What Comes Next

Knowland said that he has been conditioned to not risking war in Viet Nam be more prepared to risk it in Cambodia, Laos, Thailand, Burma, Malaya, India, Pakistan, Formosa, Japan, Indonesia, the Philippines, Australia and New Zealand.

Is the American public to first only realize the grave consequences of the chain reaction now in progress only when future demands are made on it for Alaska and Hawaii?

The alternatives are not easy. We should thoroughly understand that the cost of facing the cold, hard fact of life will be many times as great then as they are now.

left as he faced the table. The other two, George Reynow and Ricky's father, sat to his right.

Something like two hours and 35 minutes after the council began its meeting, it was ready to hear the petition. Ricky was half asleep, his throat parched, his head split just when the big moment came.

Ricky stood up, his legs numb. "Yes," he said. "I have a petition that I would like to read at this time."

"If you will just file the petition with the city clerk," the mayor said, "I will be glad to see you again."

"Mr. Mayor" It was Ricky's father his voice crisp "It was understood that the council would hear the petition tonight. This petition is no surprise to us, and

"What the council think about it?" the mayor grunted.

"Let him read it," Trumm said yawning. "Get it over with."

Ricky cleared his throat. "This petition I'm being made in the name of the Dellville Timing Association. It is signed by 18 members."

Ricky looked at the council. The mayor was sitting back in his chair, breathing through his mouth. Yorkle was doodling on a pad in front of him. Trumm's head was back and a cigaret dangled from his lips. Reynow sat slumped in his chair, a look of tired suffering on his face. Only Ricky's father looked interested. He smiled at Ricky, and nodded for him to begin reading.

Ricky wheezed through the position and then carried it to Buck Jones. Sharon gave him a quick smile of praise as he returned to his seat, but he was too tired to smile back. He was so tired that what he had read didn't make sense even to him.

Mayor Travis roused himself

"What's this about the Cosgrove road being used as a race track?"

Charles Trumm demanded.

Snyder, Mays And Musial IN THE Sport Parade

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK — The hottest
debate in the National League today centered around whether Brooklyn's Duke Snider or the Giants' Willie Mays was the better
outfielder—and everybody seemed to be overlooking the fact that Stan Musial still was the best of them
all.

You can build a strong case for the Duke of Flatbush. And you can pile up a lot of evidence for the amazing Willie.

But as far as this corner is concerned the standings as of the moment are: 1. Musial; 2. Snider, and
3. Mays.

Considering the view from here,
Musial was handed down with one of the hottest bats he has ever wielded. "The Man" is having one
of his greatest years and, while
his throwing arm may not be the best in baseball, or even in the National League, he can field with any of them.

Musial, of course, has a lot more
age on him than his two rivals.
He'll be 34 soon, while Snider is only 27 and Alabama Willie is but
23. Which means that before too long, either Snider or Mays is going to have a chance to step into the top spot.

As of the moment, and for the 1954 season alone, you have to go
for the Duke over Willie.

Snider has been wielding a much more potent bat. In 68 games he was leading the league in hitting
with a .370 mark, was second in hits and runs batted in and was well up in home runs with 19.
Some critics contend that he gets
handed batter in a right handed

Undoubtedly this is a help. But
his figures still go into the books
as they are recorded at the plate,
regardless with which arm the
pitcher happens to be throwing.

Willie, though, has been sensational since coming back from service. Willie is hitting a fat .323, leads in home runs with 24 and
has knocked in 55 runs.

Mays has a better throwing arm
than Snider and is a more spectacular fielder. But don't think that the Duke can't go far out to pull
them in. They're still talking about a game at Philadelphia on May 31
when Snider climbed the wall to make a game-saving catch.

As a team inspiration, too, you have to hand it to Mays. It has been his return and the amazing
carefree camaraderie which he
generates, which made a threat out
of the Giants. The Duke is more
on the mechanical side, leaving inspirational matters to such of his teammates as PeeWee Reese,
nella.

Mims Demands Return Bout After Upset Draw

WASHINGTON — Middle-
weight contender Holly Mims of Washington today demanded a return bout with Bobby Dykes, who held him to an upset draw in the dull 10-round television fight.

Dykes, who has homes in Miami,
Fla., and San Antonio, Tex., said,
"I'll be glad to give him a return any time I thought I was going away. But I'll make sure next time. He's an easy guy to fight."

Col. Harvey L. Miller, boxing
commissioner for the District of Columbia and executive secretary
of the National Boxing Association,
said: "Yes, I approve the draw decision of the ring officials. However, I was disappointed with the bout."

Mims, a bobbing and weaving
Washington Negro, forced the fighting in nearly every round
Wednesday in Uline Arena. But Dykes' holding and wrestling tactics prevented Holly's attack from being effective at close quarters.

Mims, ranked second among the world's 160-pound contenders, was narrowed at 2-1 over unranked Bobby; but the voting of the three ring officials made them as even-stephens as their ages. Each is 25.
Mims scaled 155 pounds to Dykes' 159 1-2.

Sea Level Lifted
Sea level in the distant past dropped many feet when untold
tons of water were locked up in advancing glaciers. In the last 100 years water released from melting
glaciers and ice sheets has raised sea level about 2 1/2 inches all over the world.

RECORD WRECKER — Dianne
Leather Birchfield established a
new women's record for the mile
and then did the same thing in the 300-yard run. Her time for the half mile in the Women's Amateur Athletic Association Championships in London was two minutes, nine
seconds. (NEA)

To Transfer 10 Ringleaders of Reformatory Riot

PONTIAC, Ill. (AP)—Ten prisoners who were tabbed as "ringleaders" in the riot at the State Reformatory here last week were transferred to the Joliet Prison today. Warden Daniel E. Bergen announced.

Bergen said there wasn't enough
room at Pontiac to keep these 10
prisoners in isolation. He would not reveal their names.

Bad Poggie
Quite troubled, a woman in Brockton, Mass., complained to the dog-
catcher that a peeping-Tom puppy
was peeking into her bedroom window every night.

Ben Hogan's coyness about the
so-called "secret" that made him
golf's greatest brings a snicker
from his fellow pros... who know
a shift of the left thumb did the trick. He holds it straight down
the shaft instead of slightly to the
from left to right.

Jim Wilson, Milwaukee's no-hit
hurler, is another reclaimed project of Paul Richards, who groomed his comeback to the majors in Seattle after a 10-year layoff. Wilson still has a place in his skull from the Greenberg blow.

Chico skipper Paul Richards displays his customary grimeness to tell this one on himself: "We were having batting practice. I didn't like the way one of the rookies was handling himself. I grabbed the bat and said, 'You can't bunt like that. Here, let me show you.' I stuck out the bat, but the ball glanced off and hit me right below the eye. The youngster grinned, 'You're right, Mr.
Richards. I CAN'T bunt like
that!'"

Which reminds us of the time
Ducky Medwick, managing at Tampa, was censuring one of his
young hands for going after balls
far out of the strike zone. The rookie bleated, "But, Mr. Med-
wick, I read where you were the greatest of bad ball hitters."
"I was," replied Ducky. "But I used a Reach bat."

Gene Sarazen, who won the Senior Golf Championship of the PGA
last winter, sails for Southport,
England, to play 36 holes of match
play with Percy Allis, the British
senior professional champ...
And who remembers back in 1937
when Sarazen, now 52, clinched
the first American Ryder Cup triumph on foreign soil, by rallying
from three down on the back side
to shoot a 33 for the decisive 1-up
triumph over... the same Percy
Allis, now a sprightly 54.

Vignette of two hustlers: From a pre-game dugout perch Hank Bauer affectionately yelling to passer-by Nellie Fox, "Hey, Little —", and no less than half an hour later roaring into second

Paul Richards
like a red-blinded bull to impale
Nellie, who cart-wheeled,
bounced up, held the ball for the
force and teasingly thrust it in Hank's face.

Ex-footbalers who turn to baseball have trouble with pitches thrown across the letters...
Irv Noren of the Yanks always scrapes
the dirt in the batter's box after he strikes out... Sherm Lollar
of the White Sox bounces at the plate like he's got foam rubber in his heels... Minnie Minoso wears his trousers lower than any other major leaguer.

We'd like Jim Rivera in our corner if any lists are slung on the diamond... The Indians' problem is what to do with Vic Wertz
after Al Rosen gets back, because
Vic gets fat sitting on the bench...
Don Johnson is a major league
hurler now, says Casey Stengel,
because he added four or five
pitches to his once lone fast ball
and learned how to hold runners
on base.

Now that Tom Alston's tailed off,
as he figured in, you can expect Ray (Jabbo) Jablonski to shift
from third to first for the Cards...
Billy Hoelt of the Tigers has settled down from his Class D days
when he once was pinched for throwing firecrackers at passing autos (one landed in the car of a police lieutenant)...

Between you'n' me, most ballplayers are agreed you can't intentionally hit a sacrifice fly...

Jaycees, Texaco, Ronnie's, Palace Win Kiwanis Tilts

In yesterday's games in the Kiwanis league the Jaycees defeated
the Athletic House, 10-6, the Tex-
aco Chiefs beat the Coca-Colas,
8-5, Ronnie's Studio downed the Karnes Hardware team, 13-3, and the Palace Clothing nine blanked
the NYC Sunnyside Park team, 9-0.
Edwards was the winner and Hathaway the loser in the Jaycees-Athletic House contest. Nolan of the Jaycees was the big hitter with five for five, two of them home
runs. Harrison also hit a homer
for the winners. Foster had two
for four to lead the losers.
Davy was the winning pitcher
for Texaco with Parks the loser.
Woodard, with two for five, had hitting honors. The game was called after six innings of play because of darkness.
The Ronnie Karnes game was a one-inning affair with Clark the winning pitcher and Hefner the loser. Clark allowed the Karnes
team only three hits while his teammates got 11. Clark and Yar-ber had two for four each for the winners while Wiley, Hefner and

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer
Robt Roberts' mastery over the Pittsburgh Pirates today enabled
the Philadelphia Phillies' hard-
throwing ace to threaten Grover
Cleveland Alexander's 37-year-old record of shutout successes against one team.

Roberts, who has a lifetime record of 25-5 against the Pirates, shut them out for the third time
in as many tries this season as he battered the Phillies to an 8-0 victory
Wednesday night. It was back in 1916 that Alexander shut out the Cincinnati Reds five times to set
the record for shutouts against one team in a single season.

Roberts has had a shaky season
but has never looked tougher to
the pitiful Pirates, who have a team batting average of .177
against him. Wednesday night's victory was Robin's fourth straight, his 11th of the campaign and his 125th of his career.

With Roberts spinning a "routine" six-hitter, the Phillies breezed to their fifth straight victory and
eighth in nine games, enabling them to open up a 3-1 1/2 game lead
over the fourth-place Milwaukee Braves, who suffered a 9-7 loss to
the Chicago Cubs. The New York
Giants beat the Brooklyn Dodgers,
5-2, and the St. Louis Cardinals routed the Reds, 11-3, in the other National League games.

The Cleveland Indians, meanwhile, restored their American League lead to three full games
when Mike Garcia tossed a four-hitter to beat the Baltimore Orioles,
2-0, after both the Chicago White Sox and New York Yankees lost
afternoon games. Bill Tuttle's ninth inning homer beat the White Sox,
4-3, for the Detroit Tigers while
the Boston Red Sox downed the Yankees, 6-1.

Garcia scored his fourth shutout
and 10th triumph of the season.
Larry Doby homered.
Cubs Snap Losing Streak
The Cubs snapped an 11 game
losing streak although they had to fight off a five-run uprising by the Braves in the ninth inning. The Cubs kayoed Lee Burdette in a three-run seventh inning. Bob Rush received credit for his fifth win.

First baseman Joe Cunningham, just up from Rochester, drove in five runs with a three-run homer
and a single to spark the Cardinals' 11 hit attack on four Cincinnati pitchers. Rookie Brooks Lawrence won his second big league
victory.

Southpaw Billy Hoelt who took over in the eighth inning, gained
credit for the Tigers' victory. Mor-tis Martin suffered his seventh loss.

Willard Nixon beat the Yankees
for the third time with a steady
six-hitter that was marred only by

State records show that privates in the three regiments New Hampshire sent to the continental army
at the start of the Revolutionary war

generals received $60.

ers to hit safely.

CHICAGO, Ill.—The Chicago Motor Club warns that errors in driver judgment, particularly under unfamiliar or adverse highway conditions, are the major factor in traffic accidents.

Charles M. Hayes, club president, said most drivers aren't aware of committing the five most dangerous errors.

1—Driving too fast for conditions, especially at night and in poor visibility.

2—Following too closely.

3—Failure to drive "ahead of oneself" — trying to anticipate emergencies and changing conditions.

4—Overtaking and passing under unfavorable conditions.

5—Failure to signal properly or otherwise committing discourtesy or un-sportsmanlike driving.

Above all, Hayes said, a driver should yield the wheel to someone else—or simply not drive—if he is preoccupied, tired, worried, nervous or depressed.

Patronage Increases on Passenger Train As NYC Gives Improved Service

By Alta Porter

It is a coincidence that B. J. Stangle, St. Francisville, flagman and J. J. Hunter, pullman porter on this train are also 38 years of age. Mr. Pate is serving as a brakeman on the run under P. C. Hardenbrook, 65, who has had 47 years of service as a railway trainman.

Mr. Hardenbrook, whose home is at Danville, formerly had as neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Thomas, Harrisburg, and is well acquainted with the Charles E. Girt family, also New York Central connected at Harrisburg terminal.

In Harrisburg every other day, these men are watching with much interest the outcome of this city to maintain passenger service to Chicago, and the effort the New York Central is making to improve the service and merit patronage.

Since the Interstate Commerce Commission ruled that the service should be continued, work of improving the track from Paris to Ernest has been making rapid progress with preliminary work now in progress as far down the line as Pinkstaff. Last year the track improvement was completed from Danville to Paris.

Also it is noted that the train has arrived in Harrisburg on schedule. Traffic has doubled since the coaches have been cut conditioned on the trip to Chicago from Harrisburg, where publicity has been given the improvement. This is not true on the trip from Chicago to Harrisburg, and since criticism has been invited by the superintendent of the railroad this criticism is offered. More publicity to an conditioned or time service from between Chicago and Harrisburg should be given.

Mr. Hardenbrook said that an other increase in passenger traffic out of Harrisburg is expected July 2, when a ten percent reduction in fares goes into effect. Under the new rates, families are especially favored. A man and his wife may make a round trip to Chicago for fare and a half. Youths from 12 to 22 travel for half fare and children under 12 for one fourth of the regular fare.

The present rate, including 98 cents tax, to Chicago is $10.57 one way. The new rate will be $8.75.

The sweater, cut like a blouse or jacket and trimmed or not, has assumed a fashion importance it's never had before. We show here three for your money, for summer. Fine-knit wool (left) in the beautiful green-blue of the tropics has sail-white edging for V neckline. Surplice sweater (center) is in light-weight blue wool in a loose knit. Form-fitting bodice and ribbed midriff create empire effect. Black, bulky knit (right) has dime-sized pearl buttons and stand-away collar. Deep arm holes taper to a snug cuff. There are sweaters for everyone this year and for every time of the day.

Sulphur Springs

Sunday school had good attendance Sunday. It seems to be growing.

Everybody is invited to come to church Sunday for the Saline county singing convention and "dinner on the grounds." There will be preaching in the morning and singing in the afternoon.

The farmers are cutting and combining wheat and oats these days.

Those who called at the K. Church home recently were Mrs. Laverne Hathaway, Mrs. Mary Lee Adams, Mrs. Pearl Haney and children and Rev. and Mrs. Godbey from Centralia. Rev. and Mrs. Godbey attended the funeral of James Blackman which was Friday at Sulphur Springs. Rev. Joe Morman, pastor of the First Baptist church in Harrisburg, delivered the funeral sermon.

Several visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hathaway recently to watch television.

Mrs. Certain's relatives from Harrisburg visited with them recently.

Mrs. Mary Harper has been a guest of home folks recently.

Navy Pays Bill After 76 Years

CLEVELAND, O.—The Navy finally came through—after three acts of Congress and 76 years.

The Navy's Bureau of Supplies and Accounts here revealed that it has cleared its books of a debt owed to the late John McCray, who did some gardening work at the Pensacola, Fla. Navy Yard between 1878 and 1882.

Details become vague in the intervening years, but McCray did not receive his money, though acts of Congress provided for its first in 1907 and again in 1935.

Finally, his great-granddaughter, Mrs. Priscilla Suarez Harris of Pensacola, with the help of lawyers, presented the bill for McCray's labor again. Another act of Congress was passed last year and now the Navy has paid the $230.14.

4-H Club News

The Mills Maidens 4-H club met at Moore's park Friday morning for the weekly session.

Dinner was cooked over an open fire by the girls. The menu consisted of fried chicken, french fried potatoes and combination salad with lemonade served as a drink.

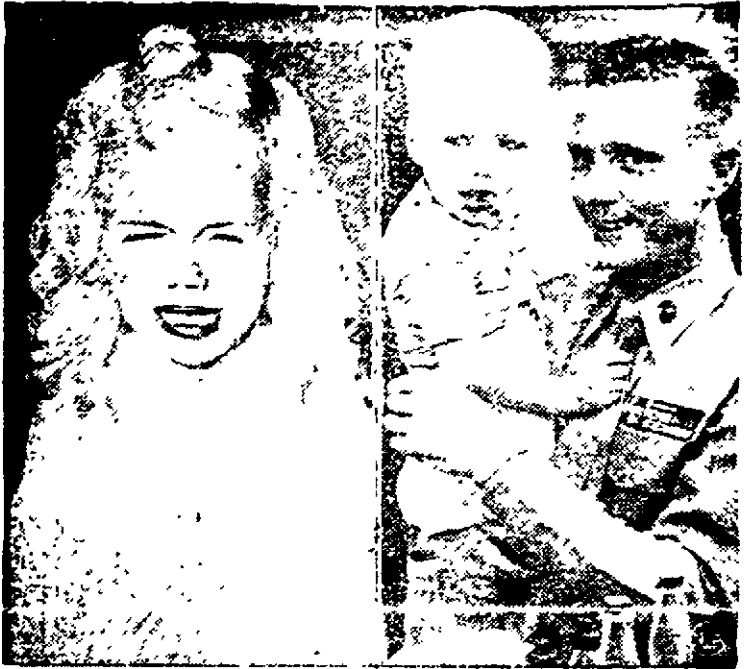

Those present were two new members, Joyce Boatright and Peggy Berns, Donna Reid, Lorna Dallas, Beverly Beavers, Patsy Stricklin, Marilyn Jamerson, Delores Brothers and the leader, Mrs. Marvella Sutton.

The next meeting will be Friday, July 2, at 9:30 a. m. again at Moore's park.

The Sunbeam 4-H club held its regular meeting at the home of Mary Roberts on Monday, June 28.

A short business meeting was held.

Refreshments of pop and sandwiches were enjoyed by the following: Mrs. Flora May, Barbara, Bonnie and Linda May, Carolyn and Doris Ledbetter, Donna Shewmaker, Mary Roberts, Carolyn Lucas, Martha May, and the hostess, mother, Mrs. Roberts.

VICTIM OF "CLIP JOINT"—Hollering for all he's worth as he's about to get his first haircut is Dale Jeffery Hallman, left, of Cleveland, Ohio. Almost three years old, he is the son of Sgt. Robert Hallman and his wife, Joan. Just back from Korea, Sgt. Robert Hallman, wanted to be on hand for Dale's first haircut, so the locks were allowed to grow. When it was all over, Dale looked into the mirror and said, "all gone."
